ODD BITS OF NEWS THAT GO TO MAKE UP THE WIRE HISTORY OF THE DAY

Kankakee, Ill., April 26.—Because his touring car refused to run, Walter Guertin chopped it to pieces with an ax and sold it for junk. He got $25 for the scraps.

New York, April 26.—Three young men, apparently sprouting whiskers prematurely, were seized by a detective on a trolley car and a flock of stolen ducks was found under their coats. They had robbed a freight car.

Berlin, April 26.—"Six o'clock! Time to get up!" is the stentorian cry of Berlin's latest invention, the phonograph alarm clock, and it is kept working overtime.

New York, April 26.—The "banana peel slide" is the name given a new dance introduced by a girl wearing the tightest of bright yellow skirts and white stockings. The allusion was most apparent.

Chicago, April 26. — Robert Worden deadlocked a coroner's jury for 18 days and forced a disagreement. Worden would not vote to exonerate a physician whose auto ran down a child.

Toledo, April 26.—While the family of Joseph Marker was gathered at the bedside of his dying daughter, a burglar ransacked the house.

London, April 26.—The recent airship event at Law Palmas, Canary Islands, enabled smugglers to cheat the customs office out of $8,000 by labeling 200,000 litres of alcohol "hydro."

Chicago, April 26.—Frank Damarest, weight 180, failed to pay his room rent for three successive weeks. Mrs. Emily Bareeren, landlady, weight 130 beat him so badly he had to go to a hospital.

WARDEN JONES CANNED AS WARDEN OF THE PEN, MANSFIELD MAN NAMED

(By Associated Press.)

Columbus, O., April 26.—The state board of administration today named P. E. Thomas of Mansfield as warden of the Ohio penitentiary for a term of two years, beginning May first.

Warden T. H. B. Jones, who loses out, will return to his home in Fronton.

Thomas has been chief probation officer at the Mansfield reformatory for some time past. His home originally was at Lima, Ohio.

Jones has been warden for four years past, being named in the early days of the first Harmon administration. He had many difficulties to encounter in his term and of late there has been some friction with the new state board of administration. This culminated in the board refusing to re-employ Jones when his term expired, May first.

OIL WAS POURED ON MAN THEN HE WAS SET ON FIRE

(By Associated Press.)

Youngstown, O., April 26—James Tuttle, 27, employed as a farm hand on the Perkins farm at Kinsman sought to save distance by crossing the field on his return from the village last evening with a can of oil. When at the edge of the woods he was met by two unknown men and according to Tuttle the oil was poured over him and he was set on fire. Robbery was not the motive as nothing was taken from him

Tuttle was taken to a hospital at Warren where he is in a serious condition from burns about the head and face.

Miners Leaders To Meet With Governor

(By Associated Press.)

Charleston, W. Va., April 26—Not until after a conference with Governor Hatfield will the miners officials make a statement as to the interpretation of the discrimination laws in the proposition of a settlement of a strike on Paint Creek and Cabin Creek which has been accepted by both miners and operators. This conference is expected to be held some time today. The construction of the clause will be left with the governor and it is expected the miners will return to work next week.

Miners of the New River field will hold a conference on May 10th to make a working agreement. It is said an effort will be made to obtain the same concessions to the miners as was made to the Paint and Cabin Creek miners at the governor's peace conference.

POPE IS MUCH BETTER

(By Associated Press.)

Rome, Italy, April 26.—The departure of Angelo Sarto, brother of the Pope, from the vatican this morning is regarded as confirmation of reports of the continued improvement in the condition of the pontiff. The Pope was later permitted by his physicians to stand at the window of his bedroom and watch the American pilgrims wending their way to St. Peter's, where they will be greeted by Cardinal Merry Del Val, papal secretary of state. The American pilgrimage, under the leadership of Rt. Rev. Schrembs, bishop of Toledo, Ohio, was presented at noon.

INCOME TAX DEFENDED BY AUTHOR OF MEASURE

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, April 26—A comprehensive analysis of the income tax by Representative Hall, of Tennessee, its author, featured today's general debate on the tariff in the house.

To the suggestion that an income tax is class legislation, he answered that its purpose was to reach for taxation those who have escaped taxes and who are able to meet them.

He declared that the masses of the people were paying most of the $312,000,000 tariff taxes and most of the state and local taxes. "Where then," he asked, "is the injustice in requiring the receivers of more than $4000 salary yearly to equalize in some measure those tax burdens by contributing more than $100,000,000 into the federal treasury."

Missouri Fighting Trusts

(By Associated Press.)

Jefferson City, Mo., April 26—Attorney General Barker filed in the supreme court today quo warranto proceedings against a number of fire insurance companies on a charge of violation of the anti-trust law in combining to withdraw from the state. The attorney general asks that the companies be fined.

BANKER WAS HELD TO BE IN CONTEMPT

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, April 26.—The special house committee which investigated the assault by Charles B. Glover, a local banker, on Representative Sims, of Tennessee, reported today. It had found Glover in contempt of the house and recommended that the speaker issue a warrant for his arrest to answer the charges.

Chairman Davis of West Virginia, said he would call the case up for consideration after the tariff bill had been disposed of.

RESTAURANT AT NEWARK IS BURNED

(By Associated Press.)

Newark, O., April 26.—Wm. Kuster, his wife and five children barely escaped in their night clothes early this morning when fire destroyed the Kuster & Co. restaurant which has been in existence for 50 years and which is well known to traveling salesmen. The loss is estimated at $20,000, and is partly covered by insurance.

ARSON SQUAD SET FIRE TO RWY. TRAIN

(By Associated Press.)

London, Eng., April 26.—A militant suffragette arson squad set fire to a train standing on a siding of the Southwestern railway at Peddington on the Thames, just outside of London, early this morning. Little damage was done, however, and no arrests were made. Quantities of oil and other combustible suffragette literature and post card addressed to the house of commons were found in the cars.

BODIES ARE RECOVERED FROM MINE

(By Associated Press.)

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 26—The emergency rescue crew which has been at work for the past few days was withdrawn from the Cincinnati mine of the Pittsburg Coal Company at Finleyville, Pa., where an explosion occurred last Wednesday, and in the neighborhood of 100 lives lost.

The crew had penetrated the principal entries and were convinced that when another body was located all the men would have been accounted for.

Five bodies were brought out this morning and removed to a morgue to await identification. This makes a total of 93 bodies removed to the morgue, 10 of which have been identified.

BLOOMING MILL IS BLOWN UP

(By Associated Press.)

Steubenville, Ohio, April 26—The blooming mill of the LaBelle Iron Works plant here blew up at 12:35 this afternoon and injured several employes. Eight were rushed to a hospital. Five of them are not expected to recover.

Killed Dog.

Officer Dixon was called to the Clare home, No. 1741 Fifth street, Saturday to kill a tramp dog that had been there for several days.

Japanese Premier, Radical Leader, and Governor Johnson, Chief Figures in the Present Trouble

Trouble between the United States and Japan over the proposed anti-alien land ownership act of California has brought into notice again Count Yamamoto, the premier; Count Okuma, who has done much to stir up the trouble, and Governor Hiram W. Johnson, of California, late candidate for vice-president on the Progressive ticket, all become important figures in the situation.

While the Japanese premier has done much to restrain anti-American feeling in Japan, the populace there has looked largely to Count Okuma. He answered the other day with the statement that nothing but the influence of Christianity could prevent war between the two countries. He said he hoped the influence would be exercised. He has addressed several large meetings where much anti-American feeling was shown.

PANAMA TOLL QUESTION IS A VERY SERIOUS ONE

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, April 26—The Panama Canal toll controversy between Great Britain and America furnished a test of the century old peace between the two countries in the opinion of Hannis Taylor, former minister to Spain, who spoke at today's meeting of the American Society of International law.

"We have a pending problem whose solution is to test the strength of the so called moral alliance between the two grand divisions of English speaking people," said he. "Let us never forget that through the Panama Canal the fleets of both countries are to unite as a great police force for the preservation of the peace of the world. It is not a good time to quarrel, just at the moment when we are about to join hands in peace."

Ty Cobb Reinstated, To Play On Sunday

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, April 26.—Tyrus Cobb is to play with the Detroit team of the American league tomorrow, according to information from the office of B. B. Johnson, president of the American Baseball association.

It was said that Cobb had been reinstated by Johnson, pending the outcome of his application for reinstatement which the National commission is to consider at a meeting in Chicago next week.

(By Associated Press.)

Detroit, Mich., April 26.—The management of the Detroit American baseball team received a telegram from B. B. Johnson this afternoon stating that Ty Cobb can play, pending action of the National commission next Wednesday. Had today's game with Cleveland not been called off on account of rain Cobb would have participated in it. He will play tomorrow, it is said.

FOOD SUPPLY STATION TO BE CLOSED

(By Associated Press.)

Chillicothe, Ohio, April 26—The flood provision supply relief station in this city will close this evening. Early next week supplies will be sent to this city from Columbus in care of the relief society here. They will be consigned to Stony Creek, Oregon, Piketon and Jasper, probably not Wednesday or Thursday.

William Bishop, boilermaker, left Friday for Johnson City, Tenn., where he will take a job at Henry Ebret's shop.

COMMISSION HAS SAILED FOR NAPLES

(By Associated Press.)

New York, April 26—Men and women composing the American Commission of Agricultural Corporation sailed for Naples on the steamer Safonia today to spend three months in 14 countries of Europe studying systems of rural credit. From the detailed knowledge which they will thus attain they hope to submit to the United States a comprehensive plan for easing the difficulty of American farmers in obtaining time loans upon their land. Representative Brown of Ashland county, Senator Cunningham of Knox county, and ex-Governor Myron T. Merrick, of Cleveland, recently American Ambassador to France are the Ohio members of the commission.

BORDEN IS ON TRAIL OF HIS DAUGHTER

(By Associated Press.)

Boston, Mass., April 26.—The search for Romona Borden, the 17-year-old daughter of the New York millionaire, was transferred to this city today, following information that the girl, with two women companions, had been located at the Hotel Vendome here.

Miss Borden's father, Gail Borden, arrived from New York at 7 o'clock this morning. A few minutes later he left the hotel in the company of two detectives. For the next few hours the movements of the party was kept secret, but it was intimated that they were in conference with Miss Borden and her friends.

C. C. Kyle, who claims to represent Mr. Borden, announced this afternoon that Miss Borden had been found. Kyle said that Miss Borden was a nervous wreck and was now in the care of friends. One of the women who is alleged to have been with the girl had left the city. Mr. Borden, Kyle said, had decided to drop any legal proceedings he had planned.

Davies To Get Job

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, April 26—Joseph E. Davies, of Madison, Wisconsin secretary of the Democratic National committee has declined to be governor general of the Philippines and has been selected for the commissioner of corporation to succeed Luther Conant, Jr. His nomination according to present plans it is said will go to the senate next week.

IN GOOD SHAPE

"We have cleaned up our relief work and the few families that need assistance since the flood are being sent to the Associated Charities," said Judge Ball Saturday. "The situation has been improved wonderfully and all the needy and worthy families are receiving whatever assistance they may need."

Ironton O. K.

Druggist Frank Amann was a business visitor in Ironton Friday. He says Ironton did not have as much water as Portsmouth and merchants seemed to be in fair shape again.

Police Judge Fricke At Cincinnati Has Decided To Resign

(By Associated Press.)

Cincinnati, O., April 26—Arthur Fricke, judge of the police court of Cincinnati, announced today that he would resign on May 1, giving as the reason, the state of his health.

Recently friction has developed between Judge Fricke and Safety Director Dennis Cash over police cases in his court but in his announcement of his resignation Fricke says that was not the reason for his resignation.

There has been much criticism of some of Fricke's decisions lately and he has also sharply criticised the police department from the bench. Director Cash had a conference with Judge Fricke about this, Cash urging that the judge refrain from criticisms from the bench. Decisions by Judge Fricke in several cases have caused comment and as his health was breaking he decided to resign.

Attempt To Burn Houses

(By Associated Press.)

London, England, April 26.—Two other suffragette attempts at arson were frustrated today by the timely discovery of inflammable material under buildings. One was in the great eastern station at West Mill about 35 miles north of London and the other under the grand stand at the preston foot ball grounds. The usual paraphanalia by the suffragettes were kerosene soaked rags and fragette literature.

Fragette litrature.

DISCONTINUE SCHOOLS

The South Portsmouth school board has discontinued school there for the remainder of the term on account of the flood.

The board members felt people suffered too much loss to be paying teachers' salaries. Prof. J. W. Tucker, principal, has moved back to Ohio and on Saturday bought Frank Krause's 38-acre farm on Carey's run for $2500. He will occupy it at once, while Mr. Krause will make his home with his son-in-law, William Hernakle.

Moves His Dairy

Frank Schoenberger, who has been keeping his 25 dairy cows in tch city since the flood, has rented quarters for them on the Frank Sommer farm place on Carey's run.

Got Wrong Price

The Times' market dopester must have received a "bum steer" Friday, judging from the wail that went up from merchants about eggs having dropped to 11 cents per dozen. Commission merchants themselves are paying 17½ cents and the supply is short, due to many farmers shipping eggs east as this is the best month for storage eggs. Some groceries yesterday sold eggs as low as 16 1-2 cents per dozen, however.

Changes Jobs.

James Kelly, well known shoeworker, has left the employ of the Irving Drew Company and taken a position at the Excelsior Co.'s annex on Offnere street.

MT. VERNON RATES ARE CONDEMNED

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, April 26. Representative Parey of Wisconsin wants the house interstate commerce committee to investigate the management of Mt. Vernon. A resolution by him, referred today to the rules committee, says there is a monopoly in transportation at exorbitant rates from the national capital to Washington's tomb in which the Mt. Vernon Ladies' association, which manages the historic spot, is interested.

PRAIRIE IS ON FIRE

(By Associated Press.)

Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, April 26—Despite rain and snow, prairie fires are growing fierce in Southern Saskatchewan, doing immense damage to settlers' farms in the Blue hills almost directly south of here. Many settlers have been driven from their homes.

COAL STRIKE TO BE PROBED

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, April 26.—Senator Kern's resolution for a federal investigation of the coal strike in West Virginia was ordered favorably reported today by the senate committee which first has to pass upon the expense involved. It now goes to the house.

All I've got t' do t' start a rumpus with somebody or other is just t' pull off a little shower. No matter how badly we need rain there's always some chap who thinks he has a kick and who ever heard of an American with an idee of that sort in his head who didn't start somethin'? Nope. I'm not tryin' t' bring on another flood an' I sin't got any spite at th' ball team, I'm simply tryin' t' help th' farmers get their corn land in shape an' th' city folks t' wash th' lime off their front yards. Here's for tomorrow:

Ohio—Showers this afternoon and in east portion tonight, Cooler in east portion. Sunday generally fair.

Kentucky—Fair tonight and Sunday.

SHOE COMPANY GRILLED BY ILLINOIS PROBERS

Springfield, Ill., April 26.—Startling revelations as to wages paid at the Springfield factory of the International Shoe company were made at the session of the state senate "white slave" commission. Following the hearing, from part of which the public was barred, Lieutenant Governor O'Hara sent this telegram to President Wilson:

"At a hearing of the Illinois senate vice commission here today it appears that the condition surrounding the employment of girls at the Springfield factory of the International Shoe company was apparently the most open to criticism of any so far discovered by the commission. The revelations were so astonishing that Senator Seils Juul, a Republican and dean of our state senate, openly and bitterly denounced this corporation.

"As I have been informed that this corporation is supporting a lobby at Washington in opposition to your proposed tariff law, on the ground that if certain duties are removed, the girl workers in their shoe factories will be brought into competition with the cheap labor of Europe, I believe your attention should be called to teh testimony given here today."

One shoe factory girl testified she made only $3.50 per week and she said she knew of scores of others whose wages were around that figure.

Houseboat Is Gone

The Timbuctoo Club of which "Buz" Dellert is president and Sam Cottle secretary, has been unable to find any trace of its houseboat which upset and sank the night the river came up so rapidly at the beginning of the flood. Later the boat was swept down stream. It was completely furnished containing among others a dresser, bedroom suite, sanitary couch, bed clothing, a phonograph and records and last but not least a picnic pump. Dellert's motor boat which also sank was recovered after the flood. It was moored among the willows just below York Place.

YOU NEED A TONIC

Pe-ru-na is One of the Original Spring Tonics of This Country. It has Stood the Test of Time.

Mrs. Martha Avery

In all countries where the four seasons are well defined, winter, spring, summer, autumn, most people find themselves in the spring of the year in need of a spring tonic.

Some medical men laugh at this idea. Nevertheless it is a fact, based on the experience of millions of people every spring. The common experience of mankind cannot be "laughed out of court." A spring tonic is demanded.

The crisp, stimulating air of winter has given place to the languorous, enervating, soporific influence of spring atmosphere. A spring tonic is needed. No better one can be selected than Peruna.

The symptoms which indicate the need of a spring tonic are: First, sleep poorly. Second, always tired out. Third, very nervous. Fourth, sometimes have foolish fears. Fifth, confusion of the senses. Sixth, brown moving specks before the eyes. Seventh, subject to spells of prostration. Eighth, dark circles around the eyes. Ninth, system out of order generally. Tenth, food seems to give no strength.

One of the people who writes us of his experience with spring tonics is Mr. J. O. Doggett, of Piedmont, South Carolina, P. O. Box 88. He says: "I have tried many kinds of medicine that claim to do wonders as a spring tonic. None of them equals Peruna. I took Peruna first to please a friend. I had no faith in it, but I was soon convinced. Peruna is the best medicine on the market for the relief of all catarrhal diseases."

Mr. B. S. Irvin, Mayor of Washington, Ga., says that he uses Peruna in his family as a tonic and he often recommends it to his friends. He also says that as a remedy for colds and catarrhal diseases and as a tonic he regards it as superior to all other remedies.

Mr. Jay Hicks, Autaugaville, Alabama, says: "I have used Peruna and consider it one of the greatest tonics known."

Then there is Mr. C. N. Peterson, of No. 132 South Main St., Council Bluffs, Iowa. He says that constant confinement to his store caused his health to gradually break down. He was in need of a tonic. He took Peruna and five bottles restored him to complete health.

Mrs. Martha Avery, No. 28 Graham St., Leominster, Massachusetts, whose portrait appears in this article, is a great friend of Peruna. She writes: "Four years ago I had nervous prostration. I employed several doctors. One would say I had catarrh of the stomach and bowels, another nervousness and another enlargement of the liver. My stomach was in a bad shape. There was nothing which seemed to do me much good. I tried other remedies, but did not gain any flesh until I commenced taking your Peruna, which built me right up. I have taken several bottles, but have not taken any now for about six weeks. I am seventy-three years old. I never expect to be entirely well or young again, but I am thankful for what Peruna has done for me."

Matches On Fire

A case of matches falling off a wagon belonging to the Gilbert Grocery Company, near the N. & W. freight house, Friday afternoon, alighted on the business end and the matches lit. There was a spectacular little blaze until Driver Tilton of the wagon and members of the East End fire department extinguished the blaze.

Miners Strike In West Va. Nears End

Charleston, W. Va., April 26.—By a vote of 84 to 9, the striking miners of Cabin and Paint Creek late yesterday accepted the proposition made ten days ago by Governor Henry D. Hatfield, with a view to a settlement of the long drawn-out strike. While the miners attempt to attach a construction to the proposition to the effect that there should be no discrimination against union employes, they leave the construction with the governor.

The operators affected accepted the proposition a week ago and have put the same into effect at their mines. Those favoring a settlement of the strike are optimistic and believe that within a few days the settlement will be complete and that martial law can safely be lifted and the state militia withdrawn.

Delighted With The Looks Of Peerless

Dr. A. G. Sellards, who has just arrived home from Southern California where he spent the winter, was agreeably surprised when he struck Portsmouth. He had passed through Peru, Ind., and says he never saw such devastation in his life. He became so alarmed over conditions there that he expected to see Peru month torn to pieces but upon his arrival was pleased to find it looking the same as it always did.

Boy's Leg Broken In Baseball Game

The first serious accident of the local baseball season occurred on Friday afternoon during the Junior-Sophomore baseball game at the River City grounds when Russell Guffy sustained a broken leg while acting as catcher. He was removed to the home, 1114 Offnere street, where the fracture was reduced.

Ralph Nutter was attempting to slide home from third base and in an effort to prevent the run, Irvine, one of the lads threw the ball from first toward the home plate. In some manner it entered, and struck Guffy's right leg, which snapped near the knee. The break is just a little below one suffered by the lad some time ago. Drs. Bennett and Bramlage were called in the case to attend him. Guffy is considered the best all around basketball player in the high school in addition to being a good ball tosser. He played center on the high school basketball five. A similar accident befell Guffy during the winter and the member has been weak ever since.

Baby Makes Mistake, Dies In Two Hours

Mistaking some medicine tablets for candy Lovell, the two-year-old baby daughter of Andy Pitts, a Breece Manufacturing Company employe of No. 78 Grace street, New Boston swallowed eleven of them and died two hours later, Saturday.

It was about 7 o'clock this morning when the child discovered the box of tablets on a dining room table. Climbing up on a chair she took the box and opened it. A few moments later the mother was horrified to discover her eating the tablets. She tried hard to dislodge the last ones she had swallowed and as the child was fast becoming ill sent for her husband who ran for Dr. Cheney only to find him out. He then boarded a street car with the child and went to Dr. S. B. McKerrihan's office. That physician and Dr. A. L. Test resorted to heroic measures to save the child's life but she died at 9 o'clock of convulsions. The body was turned over to Undertaker Dachler to be prepared for burial. The mother is reported almost prostrated. The family, consisting of the parents and another child, Ray, aged 6 years, has been living at New Boston for the past eight years, coming to Ohio from Menifee county, Ky.

Relieves Urinary and Kidney Troubles, Backache, Straining, Swelling, Etc.

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back.

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead and the back-of-the-head aches; the stitches and pains in the back; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; un-natural short breath; sleeplessness and the despondency?

I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $3.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, K-1435 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power.

It will quickly show its power once you use it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free -you can use it and cure yourself at home.

Woman In Charge Of Selby Branch Plant

Says the Ashland Independent: "It is interesting to visit the branch office of the Selby Shoe company, which is located on West Greenup avenue. Miss Maud Patton of Portsmouth, a young woman of 18-years' experience, has entire charge of this plant. She thoroughly understands the business and has 45 girls under her. These girls do excellent work and Miss Patton speaks in the highest terms of them. She says she is careful about whom she employs and all under her are most excellent young women. This factory turns out 700 pairs of shoes per day. It is interesting to watch them as all parts of the shoes are made here. One girl makes the linings, another set of girls the uppers, another the buttonholes, and so on. There is not a man employed in this establishment and Miss Patton has shown herself competent since she has had charge."

MUST KEEP AWAY FROM NEW BOSTON

Mayor W. D. Lewis of New Boston Friday evening refused to place John Jamison under a peace bond but ordered him to leave New Boston at once and to stay away for good.

Attorney Edgar Millar counsel for Jesse Nease who swore out the warrant against Jamison showed by several witnesses that Jamison had been carrying a gun for several days and had made a few threats against Nease who shot him about a year ago for alleged despoiling his home. Jamison when questioned about these threats said he did not remember having made them. He was warned by the Mayor that he would be arrested as soon as he was found in New Boston again.

Yes, It Is Hot

That is an expression you have heard frequently the last day or two.

Did it remind you it was only comparative to the season of the year and that "worse and more of it" are to come in a few weeks. In June, July and August the days are going to be torrid and the nights close and smothering.

Do you know how you can materially lessen the terrors of those nights?

Burn electric lights. Electricity in the ordinary lamp, used in the house, adds nothing perceptible to the heat. It neither increases the temperature nor consumes elements of the air, the absence of which makes heat more oppressive and intolerable. In other words, besides being the safest and most convenient of all lights, it is the most comfortable and wholesome.

Most people have ambition to make the exterior of their homes attractive. They paint, build porches and cultivate lawns. Why should not at least equal attention be given to make the interior, where most of home life is spent, cosy and comfortable? There is not any one thing that will go so far in doing that as electric lights. You can have them as ornate, or as simple, as luminous, or as soft as you may wish and always easily and instantaneously at your command.

But having your home equipped with electric lights you need not be restricted to them. You can if you wish use electricity to clean house, cook your meals and do your washing. It all depends on how far you wish to apply this magic current, the most mysterious and flexible force discovered and subjected by man.

If you are not a user of it, let us talk to you about placing it at your command and if we induce you to do so we are sure you will thank us and think yourself blessed in possession.

DISCOVER A WAY TO 'MAKE' COPPER

Harry Kiff, formerly connected with the Steinkamp Furniture company, but for the past two years manager of the furniture department of the Lauder Furniture company of Butte, Mont., is in the city visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. Kiff is accompanied by his wife and little child and they are at the home of wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Pyle, of Sciotoville. Mr. Kiff will leave Monday for Maysville, Ky., where his parents reside and the family will not return to the west until some time in June.

Mr. Kiff is enthusiastic about the opportunities in the west and seems to be very much in love with his work at Butte.

In speaking about the country, climate, etc., he told some interesting facts about the mines which surround Butte. There are forty-two in the neighborhood, including some gold, silver and zinc, but mostly copper.

The latter grow in value and richness each year. One peculiar quality which they have means practically an endless vein of ore, as they have now discovered that if tin cans old buckets, anything of the sort, is banked in the empty tunnels of the mines where the copper water, which flows over the real copper deposit, can permeate the rubbish, in some half dozen years an entirely new deposit of copper is found, the chemical action of the water turning the tin, etc., into good copper. Practical use of this copper has demonstrated that it is even better than the original deposit, as it is free from bits of rock, dirt, etc.

Warned By Mayor

Ed Sally, charged with pointing fire-arms at Mike Baker of Earlytown, in front of an East End saloon Friday night, was dismissed with a warning by Mayor Tynes Saturday.

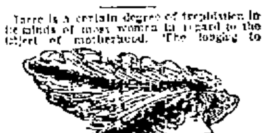

Baker told the court that Sally had covered him with a gun and threatened to kill him, but Sally insisted he had made no such threat and merely threw the gun up into Baker's face out of fun. Several witnesses testified that Sally merely seemed to be "cutting up." Sally said a young man had entrusted the gun to him because he feared police might find it on him, as he was intoxicated. Sally, himself, fearing an officer might find him with the gun, tried to conceal it in his sock, but was unable to when Baker came along and made a remark to which he took offense. Sally was unable to give the name of the gun owner.

Addison Taylor and William Eakins, both well known merchants of Sciotoville, were business visitors here Friday.

To The Young Expectant Mother

Women of Experience Advise the Use of Mother's Friend.

There is a certain degree of trepidation in the minds of most women in regard to the ordeal of motherhood. The longing to possess is often contradicted by the inherent fear of a period of distress.

But there need be no such dread in view of the fact that we have a most noble remedy in what is known as Mother's Friend. This is an external application that has a wonderful influence and control over the muscular tissues of the abdomen. By its daily use the muscles, cords, tendons and ligaments all gently expand without the slightest strain; there is no pain, no nausea, no nervousness; what was dreaded as a severe physical ordeal becomes a calm, serene, joyful anticipation that has its influence such as our foremost teachers of Eugenics are striving to drill into the minds of the present generation.

In almost every community there are women who have used Mother's Friend, and they are the ones that recovered quickly, conserved their health and strength to thus enable over families destined by every rule of physiology and the history of successful men and women to repeat the story of greater achievement.

Mother's Friend is prepared after the formula of a noted family doctor by the Bradfield Regulator Co., 135 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Write them for their instructive book to expectant mothers. You will find Mother's Friend on sale by all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is a safeguard in Winter against serious diseases, if used as directed. You can break up a cold with Duffy's before it becomes deep-seated and dangerous.

For men and women who are exposed to Wintry blasts and raw, wet weather it is an effective protection. It is pure and dependable in throat, lung and stomach troubles. It overcomes weakening, wasting and run-down conditions of body, brain and muscle. Makes the old feel young and keeps the young strong and vigorous.

CAUTION—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, be sure you get the genuine. Sold in SEALED BOTTLES ONLY—never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark—the "Old Chemist"—on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. $1.00 a large bottle. Write for a medical booklet and doctors' advice, free. NOT MERE FLATTERY.

Those high in the councils of that popular order, the Woodmen of the World, who were at the convention here this week, were kind enough to speak glowingly of the spirit and energy that were removing from Portsmouth all evidences of the flood. In fact, they expressed surprise at the rapidity and efficiency with this work being done.

Of course, we may expect visitors, out of regard for the courtesy being extended them to speak pleasantly of their impressions of citizens and city, but there was sincerity in the words of the guests, that passed them above flattery.

In the first place, few, if any of them, had a proper understanding of the size and importance of Portsmouth. She has grown up so rapidly and been developed so entirely of the ability and industry of her own people, that the great outside world has not kept pace with her appreciating importance. Further than that it is evident enough from general appearance that tremendous and unanimous effort has been thrown into the work of rehabilitation. Instead of either bemoaning their misfortunes or sending out piteous appeals for aid, her people have wasted neither time nor energy in seeking inconsequent returns, but have all taken instant and tireless hand at restoration.

The result is visible and admirable. It is the proudest thing Portsmouth has ever done and will spread her fame farther and better abroad than all her achievements of the past have.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE.

The West Side is dividing into two hostile camps on the question of the towpath, that leads across the Scioto bottoms to the city. Those who are served by the Buena Vista pike want a new embankment road built, say straight across the bottom, while those who travel by the Galena pike would have the present towpath retained.

Each division has out petitions favorable to its position and is waging a vigorous campaign for signers. The contest promises to develop a ticklish proposition that is going to be troublesome for the commissioners to solve. They will have advice enough there and more than they will like, so this popular journal will not intrude upon them with suggestions as to choice, but it would, as incident to the subject insist upon this: Whether the present towpath is retained, or a new one constructed, outlets, sufficient both in number and width should be provided for the rising waters of the Scioto so as hot to throw the whole force of the current under the bridge and against the west end of the city. Had such outlets been provided when the towpath was built the bridge, whose fragments are now rusting at the bottom of the Scioto, would still be standing and Scioto county would not be entertaining the imminent prospect of several suits for damages because of destruction wrought by the currents at the extreme west end of the city.

KEEP ON GUARD.

The recent flood has demonstrated anew the necessity of the people scanning closely indeed the character and the capacity of the men who come before them seeking office. Many there are who succeed in getting by in fair weather, but few indeed are there who can measure up to the needs and necessities of the hour when trouble comes. Then it is that such men reveal the yellow streak that is in them and that expense upon expense is piled upon the tax-payers in efforts to cover up their own short comings.

From county after county, for an illustration, is going up the wail that their public officials are inadequate to the task of meeting the conditions caused by the recent floods that they are rattled and do not seem to know what to do; that their sole idea seems to be spend vast sums of money recklessly and lavishly, not caring whether or not the people get anything in return for their money.

And this situation is doubly perilous for tax payers, for with incompetent officials and vast sums expended is apt to come graft and crookedness in many forms.

It is urgent that tax payers to be on their guard all over Ohio more so this year and next, than ever before.

LET THEM TAKE HEED.

There is nothing so bad that it may not be worse.

Let several Buckeye congressman slowly masticate that so as to give them good digestion of it. These said several Buckeye congressmen are aggrieved to the point of madness, because they see finis written on their Washington career by the recent re-districting of tha state. Seizing on a execrating word that has done long and ignoble service on such occasions, they call the re-apportionment a gerrymander and thus give aid and comfort to the opposition.

It isn't that by any means, its the fairest and mildest division of political cards that a party legislative majority ever gave. In compactness and population the districts are as near just and equal as conditions will allow. Any alteration at all, and one was absolutely imperative, would have meant the seeming destruction of the political fortunes of some, in office or out. But this was not the consideration to be borne in mind, rather a reasonably fair alignment and restoration of the equable representation so long denied the present majority. This has well been carried out. The congressmen complaining are not looking at it aright. They are moved by their personal desires and ambitions. They may protest, and that is all well enough, but if protest fail and they carry their disappointment and chagrin to the point of having a referendum on the redistricting measure, it will be all the worse for them. It is a possibility, of course, that they may by this means defeat redistricting, but they will at the same time everlastingly and eternally beat themselves.

The great mass of Democrats want the party to come into its own. The fortunes of a particular individual do not so much concern them as that after long and painful journeying in the wilderness they may not be turned back from the Promised Land almost with the setting of foot upon it. That is what the setting up of personal preferment against party harmony means. Democrats know that and they will resent it.

NEITHER HARDSHIP, NOR UNUSUAL.

The proposition, that the city provide that all houses in the lowlands hereafter erected, shall h ave the first story constructed of brick or concrete, seems to meet with general approvel. Such requirement would work no hardship in the long run, and it is by no means of the unusual. Many cities wil not allow the building of other than brick, stone or concrete structures over wide areas taking this precaution against fire. Here we have even a second and even a third contingency that should be provided against. Houses on the order suggested would be a safeguard against extreme havoc by flood and also an inhibition against the spread of contagion and unnecessary hardships. In the present condition, when the Ohio goes slightly beyod its confines both individuals and the community at large are discommoded. Families are forced to flee their abodes and temporary quarters are found for them in the school buildings, enforcing the stoppage of classes, and accelerating the development and spreading of contagion.

It is likely the courts would hold the city had no power to order the destruction of the many miserable shacks to be found in the poorer sections, but these would disappear in time and it must be remembered that great reformations, even of a physical character, ordinarily are of slow progress. Anyway progress is always builded upon improvement begun.

Farms Were Damaged

Farm owners along the Chillicothe pike report that the flood left from three inches to four feet of sand on their places. "We are having all kinds of trouble getting it off," said Robert Richardson, Saturday. "The flood seriously damaged every farm skirting both sides of the Scioto."

NOTICE TO NON-RESIDENTS

To Samuel B. Timmonds, New York, N. Y.:

You are hereby notified that on the 11th day of February, A. D. 1913, the Council of the City of Portsmouth, State of Ohio, duly adopted Resolution No. 2503, a copy of which is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 2503.

Declaring it necessary to improve Timmonds Avenue from the north line of Twentieth Street to the north line of Twenty-first Street by grading, setting curbs and gutters, constructing the necessary drains and retaining walls, paving the roadway with vitrified or hard burned brick, determining the general nature of the improvement, the grade thereof, and approving plans, specifications, estimates and profiles therefor.

Be It Resolved by the Council of the City of Portsmouth, State of Ohio, three-fourths of all the members elected thereto concurring, as follows:

Section 1. That it is hereby declared necessary to improve Timmonds Avenue from the north line of Twentieth Street to the north line of Twenty-first Street by grading, setting curbs and gutters, constructing the necessary drains and retaining walls, paving the roadway with vitrified or hard burned brick, and Council hereby determines that such shall be the general nature of the improvement.

Section 2. That said improvement shall be made in accordance with the plans, specifications, estimates and profiles for the proposed improvement designated "....." now on file in the office of the Director of Public Service, which said plans, specifications, estimates and profiles are hereby approved.

Section 3. That the grade or elevation of the curbs of said Timmonds Avenue from the north line of Twentieth Street to the north line of Twenty-first Street be and the same is hereby determined and established as follows:

EAST CURB: Beginning at the top of return curb at the northeast corner of Timmonds Avenue and Twentieth Street at an elevation of 52.50 feet; thence descending at the rate of .372 feet per 10 feet for 180 feet to the south line of Timmonds Avenue and Twenty-first Street to an elevation of 51.18 feet; thence level for 41 feet.

WEST CURB: Beginning at the top of return curb at the northwest corner of Timmonds Avenue and Twentieth Street at an elevation of 53.74 feet; thence descending at the rate of .372 feet per 10 feet for 180 feet to the south line of Timmonds Avenue and Twenty-first Street at an elevation of 52.42 feet; thence level for 40 feet.

The center of the street shall be the same elevation as top of curbs.

Section 4. That the whole cost of said improvement, less one-fifteenth thereof, and the cost of street and street intersections, shall be assessed by the foot front upon the following lots and lands, to-wit: All lots and lands abutting and abutting upon said proposed improvements, which said lots and lands are hereby determined to be specially benefited by said improvement; and the cost of said improvement shall include the expense of the preliminary and other surveys, of printing and publishing the notices, resolutions and ordinances required, the serving of said notices, the cost of construction, together with interest on bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of deferred assessments, and all other necessary expenditures.

Section 5. That the assessments so to be levied shall be paid in ten annual installments with interest on deferred payments at the rate of five per centum per annum; provided that the owner of any property assessed may at his option pay such assessment in cash within thirty days from and after the passage of the assessing ordinance, in which case said cash assessment shall not include any item of interest upon bonds to be issued in anticipation of the collection of assessments by installments.

Section 6. That bonds of the City of Portsmouth, State of Ohio, shall be issued in anticipation of the collection of assessments by installments, and in an amount equal thereto.

Section 7. That the remainder of the entire cost of said improvement not specially assessed, including the cost of intersections, together with the cost of any real estate or interest therein, purchased or appropriated, and the costs and expenses of condemnation proceedings thereof, and the damages awarded to owner of abutting lands and lands thereon, and the cost and expense of each award shall be paid by the City of Portsmouth, State of Ohio, out of the proceeds of the sale of bonds to be issued by said City for such purposes in the manner provided by law.

Section 8. This Resolution shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

Adopted February 19, 1913.

NEGRO HAD RAZOR

Sim Jackson, a Negro while crazed by drink, flourished a razor and chased everybody out of Mrs. Rauch's boarding house at No. 1016 Eleventh street Saturday afternoon. Someone finally knocked him down and disarmed him and Officer Rome Arthur later arrested him.

Mrs. George Hays and son Raymond have gone to Charleston W. Va., where they were called on account of the critical illness of a little cousin, Willie Moore. The child was a guest at the Hays home at Christmas time and has a number of friends here. He has typhoid fever and is in a dying condition.

On 8-Hour Basis.

The Norfolk & Western shops have been working on an 8-hour basis the past few days. This arrangement is only temporary and the shops will go back to the former schedule of 9 hours in three or four days.

DOG WAS HERO WITH TAPE LINE

Two men and a dog succeeded in running a tape line across the Scioto river at the point where the Scioto bridge went down and the dog, be it understood, did most of the work in fact the task was the securing of certain measurements to be used in the construction of the proposed new bridge.

"How will we get this measure across the river?" ruminated County Surveyor J. George Wilhelm as he reflectively gazed across the Scioto.

"I'll tell you what we can do" came back Joe Schneider, a smile illuminating his features."

"You hold the dog until I row across the stream and then you put one end of the tape line in his mouth and hold on to the other and the dog will swim to me" said Schneider with a glimmer of confidence in his eye.

The dog, a common mongrel was given the end of the tape line Schneider yelled to him three or four times and the carrier suddenly plunged into the river and swam over to Joe without losing the line. The trick was turned neatly and expeditiously as Joe held one end of the measure, and Wilhelm the other. They looked at each other and then smiled sympathetically, yes appreciatively at the dog. Some dog.

HAMMER AND PAINT

An official of the Excelsior Shoe company made the statement Saturday that work on their new $200,000 home, to be erected at Gallia street and Campbell avenue, would be commenced within the next 60 days. The factory is to be built above the 1913 flood, so that the firm will not be troubled with high stages in the Ohio.

"We are going to profit by our experience in the recent flood and the first floor will be above a 67-foot stage in the Ohio," said one of the officials of the company. "We hope to vacate our present buildings May 1, 1914, when they will be taken over by the Selby Shoe company. The Excelsior people saved all of their leather in the recent inundation by putting a force of 100 men on the job of carrying it to higher floors.

H. S. Grimes' residence, corner of Second and Gay streets, has been repainted, white being the color used.

Architects DeVoss and Patterson have begun receiving bids on the new school building that will go up in New Boston. The plans have been approved by the building authorities in Columbus. The bids will be opened May 22.

Will Hold Dance.

The Gala club will hold its usual week-end dance at the Willhelmette hall tonight.

Can't Find Lines.

The washing away of outbuildings and fences by the flood has caused difficulty among property owners east of Beattyville finding their lines. Will Adams had Civil Engineer Sam Rice to find his lines, but others have asked the Greenup county surveyor to make surveys for them.

BUILDING PERMITS

William J. Gulley, new 5-room cottage on Baird avenue, $1500; Pearl Storer, contractor.

Has Gone To Ironton

Mr. George Hays, of 913 Front street, has gone to Ironton where he will be foreman of the bottoming department of the Excelsior shoe plant there. Mr. Hays has been connected with the Excelsior people for the past eight years and is a very valuable employe.

Abrams Arrested

Bob Abrams's, farmer's magazine agent got into a scrap with a farmer-boy in front of the Grand Opera House Saturday afternoon. Officer Rome Arthur separated the two and ordered them to move on. The farmer complied but Abrams did not and he was locked up. Charges of drunkeness and disorderly conduct were placed against him.

Due Shumate, William Hahn, Roger Staggs and quite a number of other Nancesburg, Ky., citizens were visitors here Saturday.

SOCIAL NEWS

A number of the young women of the Clio club met together last evening at the home of Miss Philippine Schmidt, on Eleventh street, and enjoyed a pleasant social evening. Miss Grace Frye read a delightful paper entitled "The Liberties of An American Girl." Refreshments of ices and cakes were served by the hostess at the close of the evening. The members present last evening included Mesdames John Lowry, Henry Heer, J. D. Creveling, Charles Hort and Misses Luey and Verena Graham, Grace Frye, Alice Pihy, Margaret Heer, Gertrude and Edith Elliott. The next session of the club will be a party on the 9th of May at the home of the president, Mrs. John Lowry, with Misses Gertrude Elliott, Grace Frye and Mrs. J. D. Creveling as assistant hostesses.

A party of young girls met last night at he home of Miss Garnet Morrison and organized a club, which will be called the H. B. M. club, with the following girls as members: Aletha Clark, Crystal Jacobs, Georgia Dillon, Fannie Cowdry, Edna Astholz, Ida Astholz and Garnet Morrison. After the election of officers a jolly social time was enjoyed, followed by refreshments. The next meeting will be held Thursday, May 8th, at the home of Edna and Ida Astholz.

Chester Holton of Seventeenth street, who was recently appointed to the position of cadet at the Annapolis Naval Academy from this district, was admitted to the academy yesterday. Holton secured his position through Congressman R. M. Switzer.

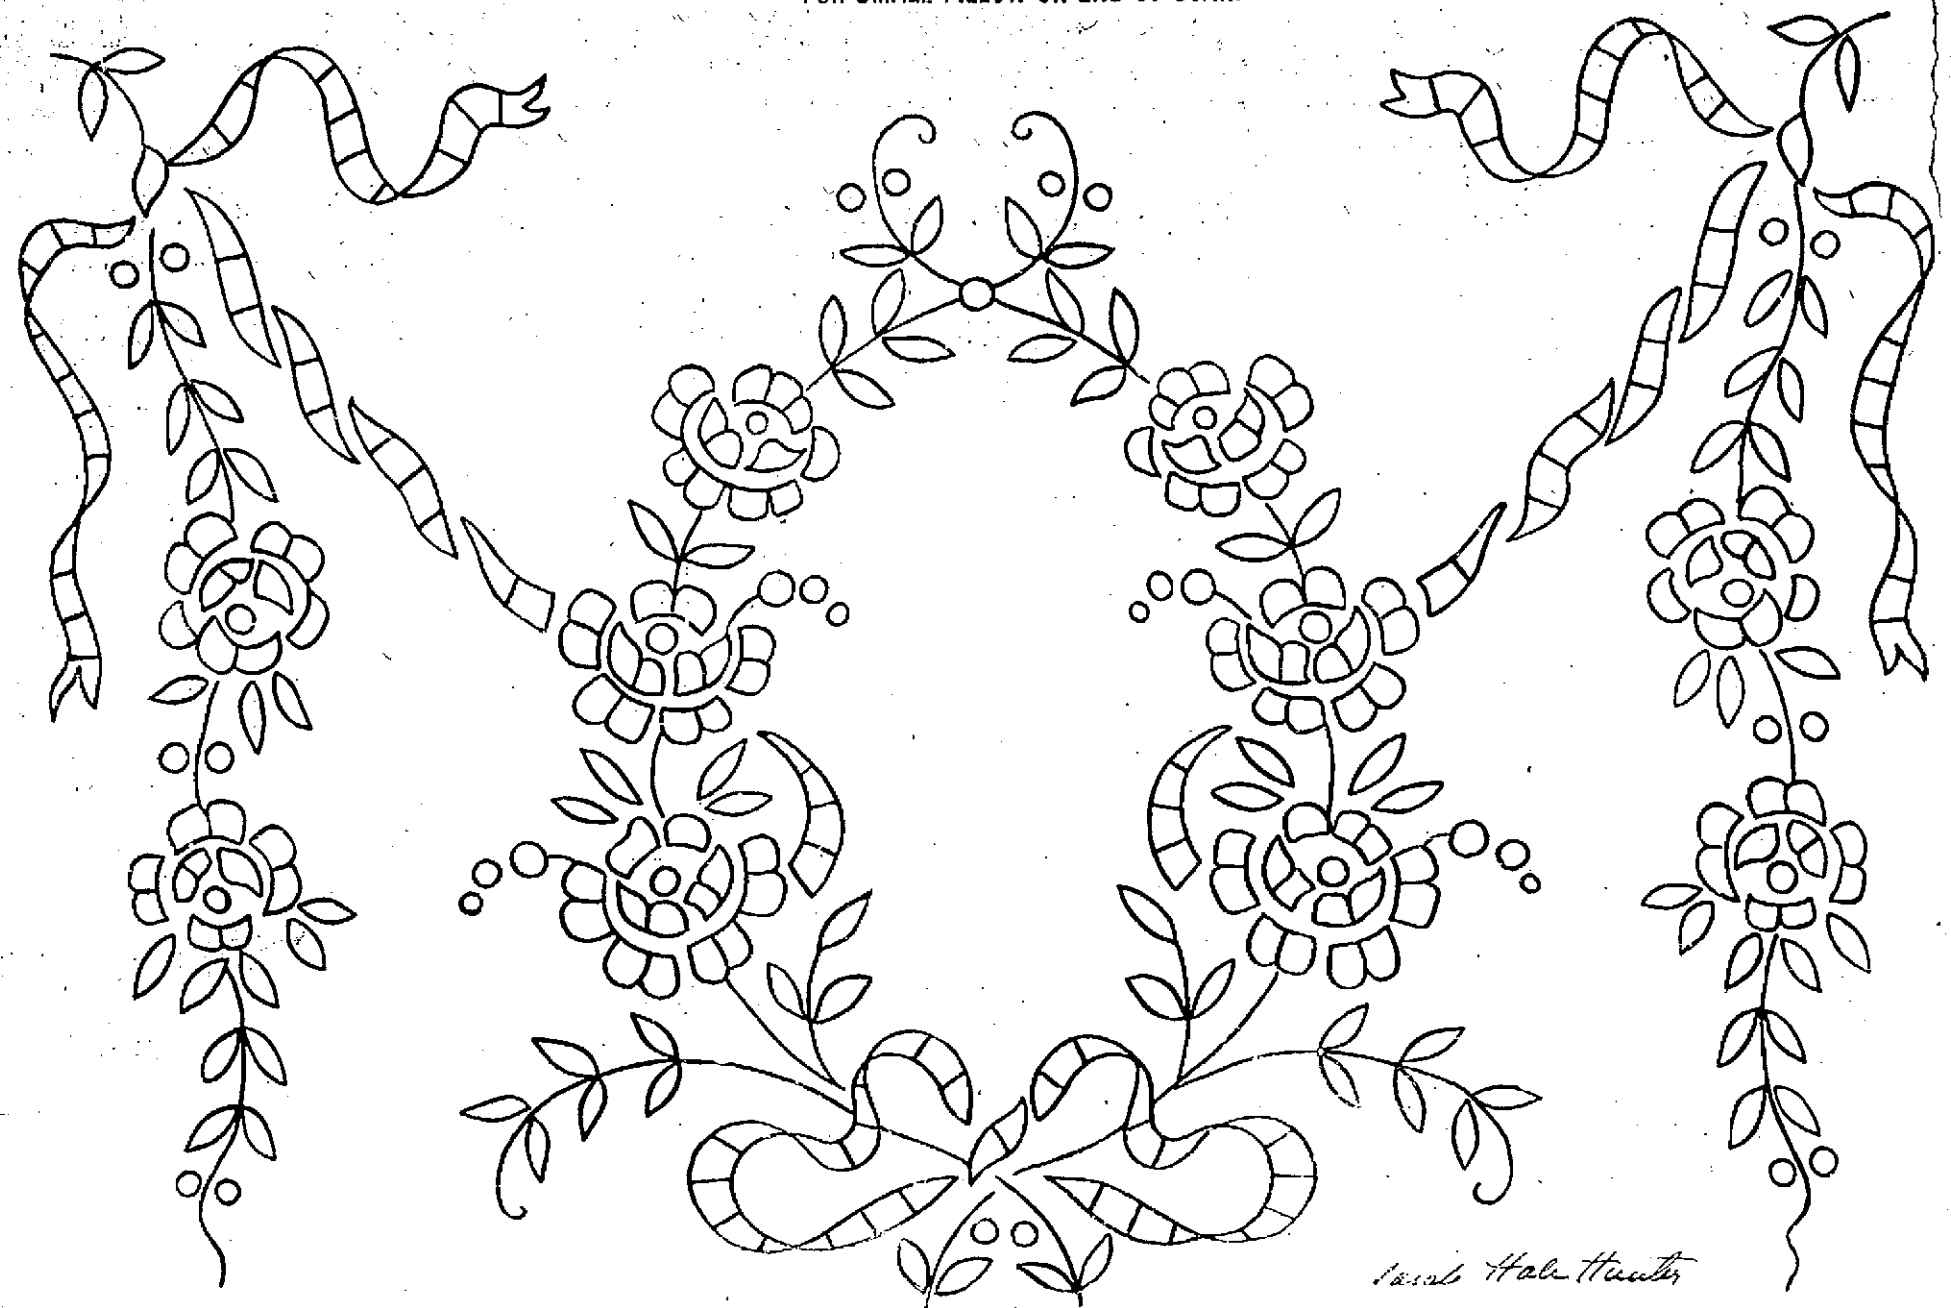

Prof. Albert Stewart, who has been attending school at Antioch college at Yellow Springs, is expected to be at his home on Murray street for the next ten days, as the college students are now enjoying their spring vacation.

Among the graduates of the Lake Erie college of Painesville, this year will be Miss Anna Louise Fee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Fee. Mr. and Mrs. Fee are planning to attend the closing exercises of the school.

Misses Della and Nora Friend will spend Sunday with their mother at Carter City, Ky.

Mrs. W. H. McCurdy of Wheelersburg and her brother, Frank Feurt, of Seattle, Wash., were guests of friends in Portsmouth yesterday.

FOR SMALL PILLOW OR END OF SCARF

This makes a most charming design when embroidered. The flowers and leaves are solidly worked with the dots as eyelets and the stems in the outline stitch. The ribbon is buttonholed closely along the edge with the purling brought to the inside. The cross bars are formed of strands of the cotton stretched from one side of the ribbon to the other. These should be buttonholed without catching through the material which is cut away underneath. Mercerized cotton No. 25 should be used.

DIRECTIONS FOR TRANSFERRING.

In taking off these patterns, lay a piece of impression paper upon the material, place the newspaper pattern over this, and with a hard, sharp pencil draw firmly over each line. If the material is sheer it may be laid over the pattern and drawn off with pencil, as the design will show through.

No patterns of these designs are available.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise—I have a very jealous girl friend. How can I regain her former friendship? G. M.

Just be nice to her and give her no cause for jealousy. But it's wise to fight shy of jealous people.

Dear Miss Wise—I have a leather Davenport that was in the flood. It is in good condition, but I have not been able to get the smell of the mud and water out of it. Can you tell me how to do this?

"Flood Sufferer."

Clean the Davenport thoroughly, then take it out into the back yard, or on the back porch these hot, sunshiny days, and leave it open all day. Do this for several days and I think the odor of mud and water will soon disappear.

Dear Miss Wise—Can a girl 18 years old get married in Portsmouth without her guardian's consent? Is it proper for a young lady to let the man she is engaged to kiss her good-night? Anxious.

Yes to both your questions.

Miss Dolly Wise—Please give me some information on introducing and being introduced. I am 15 years old and would like to know where to get a book on manners.

Anxious.

A gentleman is always presented to the lady. Where there is a marked difference in ages, the younger person is always presented to the elder one. The usual form of introductions between equals in age or position is "Miss Brown, Miss Black." Mr. Smith, Mr. Jones."

You can buy a book on manners and etiquette at any of the local book-stores.

Dear Miss Wise—If in a very crowded street car there is not room for both a girl and her gentleman friend to sit down, is it proper for the girl to sit on her fellow's lap, especially if it is very late and they can't wait for another car. Malinda Jane.

The man ought not be so tired that he can't stand while the girl takes the seat.

Dear Miss Wise—A young woman with whom I am employed is desperately in love with the same young man with whom I am in love. He shows each of us the same attention, and when the two of us are together he treats us alike; but still, when he takes me out alone, he tells me that I am the only girl he loves, and when he takes my friend out he tells her the same. Shall I refuse his attentions, as I am very fond of the other young woman and would willingly give her the chance if you so advise? Minnie.

He is the most detestable of all creatures—a man Bir. You will do your friend no kindness by giving her a clear field, since to win him means only to win trouble. Why not put your two heads together and devise some scheme of teaching him a lesson?

Dear Miss Wise—How would be a nice way to ask a boy to dance, and thank him afterwards in ladies' choice? What would be a nice answer to give when a boy asks you for a dance, and you wish to accept? And when he thanks you for one? Stella.

"I have enjoyed this dance very much." (If the boy can dance). When a boy asks you to dance, say to him, "I shall be pleased" in accepting, and afterwards answer that you have enjoyed the dance with him very much.

Dear Miss Wise—I am a young man of about 15 years of age. I have a number of girl acquaintances but none that I am familiar with enough to call upon. Would it be right to send a note to such a girl acquaintance asking to make a date? Can you tell me how to get acquainted with a girl whom I do not know, and do not know anybody that does, although I see her quite often while she is working? She is very pleasant to me, but is not the kind to pick up a fellow, I think.

All Alone.

Cultivate your girl acquaintances. When you meet them, stop and talk to them. Perhaps you are backward and don't give them an opportunity to be friends with you. Suggest a theater party or some other amusement some time and see how they receive it. Then follow it up with a definite arrangement. As for the other girl, I think you are waiting for her to pick you up. That is a new fashion, I believe. Usually the man takes the initiative. Find out where she spends her evenings, or where she attends church and then make it your point to be there, too. Take advantage of the fact that you have seen her elsewhere and speak to her.

GOOD THINGS TO KNOW

Clean glass with ammonia.

Clean piano keys with alcohol.

Clean wall-paper with stale bread.

Paint can be removed by rubbing with spirits of turpentine.

Unvarnished furniture can be polished with beeswax and turpentine.

Scratches on furniture can be taken from varnish by rubbing with kerosene.

Remove white spots from furniture by rubbing with camphor.

Mrs. Mark Selby and daughter, Christine, arrived home last night from a five weeks' visit in Pinehurst, N. C., and Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

Miss Rose Reilly returned last night from a two weeks' visit in Pittsburg, Pa. While in Pittsburg Miss Reilly witnessed the opening game between the Pirates and Reds, and also saw the Pirates defeat the latter in last Saturday's game, in which "Babe" Harter pitched one inning.

SOCIETY

Many of the friends of Miss Alice Selby of Haverhill, a "shut-in," prepared for her pleasure on Easter, a surprise box. Each day she draws from the box some little gift, which she opens and has the pleasure of owning. Enough gifts were in the box to last her until May, opening one each day. Miss Selby is the invalid daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Selby, of Haverhill, who can only get about in a wheel chair.

Dr. A. G. Sellards arrived home last night from Southern California where he has been spending the winter. Dr. Sellards also spent several weeks in Roswell, New Mexico, with his son, Dr. Howard Sellards, who has been quite ill with pneumonia.

En route home Dr. Sellards stopped in Lawrence, Kansas, last Tuesday to see his brother, Dr. A. B. Sellards, who was stricken recently with paralysis, and arrived there two hours after his death.

Mr. Orla E. Rickey came home last night from a three weeks' trip through Kentucky in the interest of the Hamilton Brown Shoe Company, to spend Sunday with his family on Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brockman, who have been living at 633 Third street, will move Monday to a cottage on Grandview avenue, near Robinson avenue.

D. O. Rice arrived last night from Columbus, to spend Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rice, of Tinmonvis avenue.

Miss Mary Brownstead, of Ironton, is coming tomorrow to spend several days with her sister, Mrs. Eliza Parker, of Lincoln Hill, and Mrs. Vivian Edens, of Eleventh street.

Miss Eloise Henderson, of Manchester, stopped here yesterday for a few days visit with her cousin, Mrs. Alfred H. Richardson, of Fourth and Offnere streets, enroute to Huntington, W. Va., for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Tucker.

Misses Barbara and Kate Baron and niece, Miss Kate Maitre, of Seventeenth street, arrived home Wednesday night from Florida, where they have been spending the winter since November. Enroute to Portsmouth the party stopped in Rochester, Ind., for avisit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison Loper, who have been spending the winter in this city with their daughters, Mrs. Charles Spencer and Mrs. F. C. Goodwin, will leave next Tuesday for their home in Fairfield, Ind., accompanied by Mrs. Spencer and children, who will spend several weeks there.

Miss Teresa Kennedy arrived home today from the O. S. U. Columbus, to remain over Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wade S. Kennedy, of Gallia street.

Miss Mildred Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Gibson, of West Ninth street, is improving from a short attack of illness.

Etiquette for the Business Girl

Each year sees more girls go into the business world, and etiquette therein is entirely different from that of the social world, though there is not, and never will be, any good reason why a woman should not always be treated as a lady wherever she happens to be. But there are certain small courtesies practiced in society that would be out of place in the business office.

The woman employee, the stenographer, the private secretary, the bookkeeper or whatever her position, has a perfect right to expect her employer to treat her politely, and if he is a gentleman he will certainly do so. But she has no right to expect from him the small attentions it would be his duty and pleasure to offer were she acquainted with him socially. The best bred girls, as well as those most successful in business, never try to make the two absolutely dissimilar worlds mingle, but keep their social life entirely for home.

It sometimes happens that a girl makes life-long friends among her business associates, but it is always best to err on the side of caution. Make many acquaintances, but few friends, and let the latter be tried and true. Be pleasant to every one, but be in no hurry to form intimate friendships; if you do this you may be spared many painful mistakes and many regrets.

If a girl is pretty and attractive she is sometimes offered attentions by the men in the office. No well-brought-up girl would think for a moment of accepting an invitation to lunch with any man who has always been a stranger to her; she would resent such an invitation as an insult and treat the stranger accordingly. Yet the working girl, if she values her position, cannot resent such attentions very strongly, but she can positively and firmly refuse them.

The girl who enters an office must not expect excuses to be made for her on the grounds of her sex. It might almost be said that she stands on an equal footing with man in the business world, but this is not the truth as yet, though it may be in the future.

Woman is discriminated against all through the industrial world just because she is a woman. She may do as good or better work than a man in the same position, but she cannot yet command the salary he can. But if she keeps on doing her very best and is prompt and energetic and neat in appearance, with a pleasant word and a cheery smile for all comers, she may indeed go a long way.

The government service in Washington shows just what a woman can do when she is given the opportunity. Some of the highest paid employees of Uncle Sam in the departments there are women. Many of them have held their positions for years, going higher up the ladder year by year.

And each year the government is taking more women into its service. They are passing the Civil Service examinations in all parts of the country, and most always they are women who have had some sort of a business training before taking the examinations. And in each successful case they have studied the etiquette of business, and they have found it too great a matter to pass by with but a slight acquaintance.

Of the marriage Thursday, of Archdeacon Doulshon, of the Episcopal church, the Columbus Citizen says:

"Rev. Joseph Doulshon, aged 45, of Worthington, archdeacon of the Columbus Convocation of the Southern Ohio Episcopal church diocese, and for years a resident of Columbus, was married at noon Thursday in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine at New York City to Miss Carsonette Kennedy Porter, aged 30, of Zanesville.

"Rev. Mr. Doulshon sold his residence at Worthington last week, and securing a leave of absence of three months, escorted his prospective bride to New York, where the ceremony was performed by Bishop Burch. Rev. and Mrs. Doulshon expect to make Zanesville their home upon their return from an extensive wedding trip.

"Rev. Mr. Doulshon, an Englishman, formerly held the rectorship of the Episcopal church at Gibraltar."

After a visit with friends and relatives in this city, Mrs. Edna Cross Kirkendall has returned to her home at Oreola, O.

The Times' Birthday Calendar

It Tells You Your Future if You Were Born on This Day—

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY
Saturday, April 26

Be careful of your relations with others. Some unpleasant complication looms on your horizon and especilly guard your health. You will have much to enjoy in the coming year, and your best judgement will show you how to make it a successful one.

Those born today will have talents and will know how to use them to attain high positions. In youth they should be taught to discuss differences without anger and to look for causes before forming judgements of results. (April 26th.)

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY
Sunday April 27

Every-day affairs will prevail as usual with you with no great events, but among those dear to you some trouble of disappointment threatens. You can foresee this trouble and possibly avert it.

Those born today will be careless of their belongings and will waste them in idle whims, causing infinite trouble for those on whom they depend, and later on themselves. These tendencies can be changed by teaching them when young to earn things and to suffer inconvenience from the lacking things which they destroy. (April 27th.)

Miss Lulu Ferguson of Ashland, Ky., is spending several days with friends in Portsmouth.

Mrs. E. O. McGowan of Wheelersburg attended the commencement exercises at South Webster Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Henderson, who have been entertained here for the past week, have returned to their home at Dayton.

Mrs. George Schneider will go to Cincinnati Sunday to spend the day with relatives. She will also visit in Bellefontaine, O., before returning home.

Mrs. Mary Severs has been laid up at her home on West Fourth street with a badly sprained ankle, which she sustained in a fall that occurred shortly after the flood recorded. Mrs. Severs has been unable to bear the weight of her body on the injured foot.

Anselm Skelton, who will graduate in June from the Cincinnati Law School, arrived in the city Saturday to spend Sunday with relatives.

Mr. M. W. Brown's class of Trinity Sunday school, were delightfully entertained last evening at the residence of Mr. John M. Stockham, on Offnere street. The wives of the class members and Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Scott and sons were guests of honor. Miss Katherine Stockham, a daughter of the host, rendered several beautiful vocal numbers and Mr. Stockham contributed much towards the charming entertainment by talking very interestingly on his recent trip to the Panama Canal zone and Jamaica. A delicious repast, served by Mrs. Stockham and daughters, Misses Katherine, Vesta and Violet Stockham, concluded the evening's pleasures.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taggart, who have been living with the Tynes family on Fourth street since the flood, moved back to their cottage on Fifth street near North Waller, Friday.

Walter Taylor, of the W. H. Burt company, came home Saturday from Georgetown, Ky., where he was called by the death of an uncle, who died suddenly.

Mr. and Mrs. George Appel, of Gallia street, are planning to go to Washington, D. C., the second week in May, to attend the commencement exercises at Cleary Chase School, when their daughter, Miss Margaret, will be one of the graduates.

Miss Maud Riegel has returned from a short visit with friends and relatives in Jackson.

The T. B. C. club girls met last evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Lorey, on Robinson avenue, and spent the evening delightfully with needle-work, music and social chat. At the close of the evening the hostess served a dainty lunch to her guests, who included Mrs. Albert Jordon, Ralph Donahlson, and Misses Pearl White, Louise Bourgholtzer, Edna Streich, Mayme McGuire, Bertha Brand and Addie Spencer.

The next meeting will be held on May, the eighth, with Miss McGuire.

Mrs. Lynn B. Adkins returned to Columbus O. after a two weeks visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hamm of Seventh street. Many friends welcomed her. Her husband preceded her a week ago business matters calling him home.

Shoppers in the city yesterday included Mrs. B. W. Allard and Miss Jennie Butcher, both of Stockdale.

The Progress Club members have decided to meet once again before the close of the season, the place and date to be announced later.

Mrs. Sarah Jacobs of Lucasville one of the old residents of that community, is slightly ill at her home. R. N. Russell of Eighth and Boundary streets, is a son of Mrs. Jacobs. The latter has passed the four score and ten mark but is still in moderately good health the greater part of the time.

Mr. James C. Louis, shoeworker in one of the local factories, and Miss Sadie Jones were united in marriage today. Rev. E. Ainger Powell, rector of All Saints church, officiating.

Mrs. T. C. Beatty and children, of Ninth street, will spend Sunday in Clifford, the guests of Mrs. Beatty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Appel.

Mrs. James Baker, of Wheelersburg, was a business visitor in the city today.

Judge and Mrs. W. D. James and children returned to their home on Fifth street last evening, after a few days' visit on their farm, near Wakefield.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pittenger, of Arlington, Colorado, who have been the guests of Mrs. Pittenger's sister, Mrs. Ed. Pfeiffer, of 1702 Seventh street, the past week, left this morning for Mineral Springs, where they will spend the summer with Mrs. Pittinger's father, Mr. I. L. Hoppleman.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Atlas, who were called here on account of the death of their sister-in-law, the late Mrs. Henry Atlas, returned to Gloucester Friday. Mr. William Sprei, a nephew of Mrs. Atlas, also returned to his home in Murray City yesterday. Mrs. P. Sprei, of Cleveland, and Mrs. H. Wind, of Huntsville, Alabama, the latter a sister of Mrs. Atlas, will remain in the city until next week.

Mrs. Anna Lake, of Fourth and Sinton streets, expects to go to Wooster next week for an extended visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hardy, of Ironton, arrived this evening to remain over Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Fourth street.

Robert Tynes came home Saturday from Cincinnati to spend Sunday with the home folks.

Col. S. R. Ross, who has been ill in Cleveland, has not been so well the past few days.

Ruth and Mildred Bertram, the winsome little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bertram of Center street, entertained nineteen of their little playmates today with a party in celebration of their birthday anniversaries, both falling on the same day. Miss Ruth was four today and Mildred six years.

Mrs. Bertram was assisted by her daughter, Miss Edith, and Misses Grace Boyles and Lula Puckett in entertaining the little tots. After enjoying the games for several hours the children were invited to the dining room where refreshments of ices, cakes, candies and fruits were served.

The table was decorated in pink and white and the two birthday cakes were adorned with the requisite number of pink candles.

The little guests present in- ine and Eva Reutinger, Willie ine and Eva Reutinger, Willie and Selma Haslett, Bertha Davis, Ogla, Jammie and Helen Stewart, Dorothy Jackson, Lucile Ellecessor, Carmon and Elizabeth Cryer, Irene Deitz, Ruby Pinson, Margaret Louise Hartman, Virginia Phillips, Marie Workman, Faith and Geraldine Garrett and Amelia School. The little hostesses received a number of pretty gifts from their friends as remembrances of the delightful occasion.

Mrs. C. E. Simpson of Gallia street will entertain with a family dinner, Sunday, in celebration of the second birthday anniversary of her little nephew, Francis West, the interesting little son of Mr. and Mrs. George West.

Covers will be laid for Mr. and Mrs. West and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Delahar, and family, and Mrs. C. E. Simpson and family.

Miss Erma Chambers of Rio Grande college, who has been at South Webster for some time drilling the pupils who took part in the class play, has returned to Rio Grande.

Bonaparte Potts, who graduated at South Webster, has gone to Rio Grande in company with Prof. E. E. Edwards, and has entered Rio Grande college.

Mrs. Henrietta Hart, of Chicago, who was called here by the death of Mrs. Albert Goodman, left this afternoon for Hamilton, where she will visit friends. A. W. Goodman accompanied Mrs. Hart to Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Si Straus leave this evening for Hamilton where they will make a week end visit with relatives.

SPECIAL TO WOMEN

Do you realize the fact that thousands of women are now using

Paxtine

A Soluble Antiseptic Powder

Is a remedy for mucous membrane affections, such as sore throat, nasal or pelvic catarrh, inflammation or ulceration, caused by female ills? Women who have been cured say "It is worth its weight in gold." Dissolve in water and apply locally. For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. has recommended Paxtine in their private correspondence with women.

For all hygienic and toilet uses it has no equal. Only 50c. a large box at Druggists or sent postpaid on receipt of price.

HAVING TROUBLE OVER A ROAD

When William Eichenlaub stretched a wire fence across a road leading through his farm near Otway, John Morgan, Sr., and John Morgan, Jr., his son, acting under advise from counsel, tore it down. Eichenlaub then placed stones and brush across the right of way to block it from traffic. The Morgans also removed these obstructions. Eichenlaub forthwith swore out warrants for the arrest of the Morgans on charges of trespassing.

Squire Freeman, of Otway, heard the controversy Friday, with Attorney N. B. Gilliland representing the Morgans, and Attorney Jos. T. Micklethwaite appearing for Eichenlaub. The charge against John Morgan, Jr., was dismissed, while that against the older Morgan was taken under advisement.

All of the trouble has grown out of Eichenlaub's claim that the road is a private one, while the Morgans counter-claim that it is public.

ORCHIDS GO TO ENGLAND

San Mateo, Calif., April 26—The claim of this city to the title of "Champion Orchid Growing Section of the World" was made good here today when a local company shipped to King George of England the largest consignment ever sent to the Sandringham gardens. There were 500 plants of the very choicest variety in the shipment and the price the British Monarch will have to pay represents a fortune.

GREAT LINER ON FIRST TRIP

Philadelphia, April 26—Imperator, the last word in ocean liners, according to the newest ideals in the matter of safety equipment, will leave here for Hamburg tomorrow on her maiden voyage.

WILL MEET AT BRICK SCHOOL

The Unity Sunday school will meet at the Brick School house, on the Chillicothe pike, at 2 p. m., Sunday, for the first time since the flood.

Will Play Ironton

The base ball team, representing the local Eagles, under the management of Isador Goodman, will go to Ironton, Sunday, to play Al McClintock's Ohio State Leaguers. The game was booked Saturday.

RAISED BIG LEMON

Ed Basham, a Quincy, Ky., farmer, Saturday brought a lemon to town that weighs exactly one pound. It is now on display at Dave Stahler's hardware store. Mr. Basham had 37 lemons on one tree, the seed for which he plant- Officer Rome Arthur seperated

Gets New Piano.

Charles Turner, a West Side farmer, Saturday received a piano from The John Church Company, of Cincinnati, to replace the one he lost in the flood. Charley is building a new house and barn on the Buena Vista pike, above the last high water mark.

Takes Position.

Ed Russell, who recently quit business has taken a temporary position with his former employers, Sommer Bros., hardware dealers.

C. W. Stansberry, of Middleport, O., is in the city the guest of Manager Wolff, of a local clothing store.

MISS MEYER MARRIED TODAY

Washington, April 26—Miss Alva Appleton Meyer, daughter of former secretary of the navy, George von L. Meyer, today was married to Lieutenant Raymond P. Rogers, U. S. N., in St. John's church. Miss Helen Taft, daughter of ex-President Taft, came here from New Haven to be one of the bridesmaids. Miss Julia Meyer was her sister's principal attendant. The others were Miss Ruth Appleton, New York; Miss Martha McCook, New York; Miss Christine Hunnewell, Boston, and Miss Katherine Jennings and Miss Dorothy Williams, of Washington. Lieut. Rogers varied the rule of having his entire party made up from brother officers. His brother, Donald Rogers, acted as best man.

BOARD HAS MEETING

The board of elections held its first meeting since the flood Saturday, allowing salaries and a few bills and ordering all portable voting booths and voting places damaged by water put back in shape again.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

James C. Louis, 22, shoeworker, city, and Miss Sadie Louisa Jones, 21, shoeworker. Rev. Powell.

POTTS WILL CLOSE

J. F. Potts, of the Arcana theatre, announced Saturday afternoon that his theatre would not be opened Sunday and that it would remain closed until the grand jury acted upon the affidavits filed against him in Byram's court last Monday.

The managers of the Exhibit and the Temple theatres were discussing the matter late this afternoon and said they had arrived at no decision as to whether they would keep their places open Sunday.

MEETING OF SALESMEN

A sales meeting was held at The Portsmouth Steel Company's offices Saturday afternoon. Present were: Maynard French, of this city, general sales manager; James A. Henry, district manager, Cincinnati; J. L. Neudoerfer, assistant district manager, Cincinnati; D. L. Rice, of Columbus; L. C. Jenkins, of Indianapolis; F. W. Knowles, special agent; N. J. Ewing, of Detroit; A. A. Scherer, Southern representative, Atlanta, Ga.; W. M. McCleary, assistant sales manager of this city; C. B. Robinson, of Louisville, Ky., and Andrew Glass, general manager.

Rats On The Hill Tops

Portions of the Hill Top are reported over run by rats since the flood. Harry Wheeler and other of Seventeenth street came down town Saturday afternoon after traps saying the rodents are eating their eggs. "Why even the ladies up our way have "rats" in their hair" remarked one of them.

Bailey Post Has Meeting

The first meeting of Bailey post in its new hall in the Selby property on Gallia street was held Friday night with a large attendance. Many of the veterans took their first glimpse at the hall and expressed themselves as well pleased with it. One commendable arrangement of the new location is the elimination of one flight of long stairs which had to be climbed at the hall over the Security bank.

One new member, Mr. Baker, of Buena Vista was admitted to membership.

Ironton Visitor.

P. C. Sloan of the United Gas and Fuel Company of Ironton was in Portsmouth Saturday on a business errand.

NO ACTION ON BRIDGE OVER SCIOTO

The county commissioners paid their semi-weekly visit to the site of the old Scioto bridge Saturday. They looked at the remains long and earnestly, but so far as can be learned they have taken no action toward erecting a temporary structure.

A brief session of the board was held Saturday morning but merely discussions were indulged in as to the most feasible method of providing for satisfactory transportation to the West Side.

Admire New Clock

The new clock erected in front of the Security Bank, which has a cathedral gong attached to it, is attracting much attention and admiration. John Murray figured it out Saturday that the clock strikes 1078 times every day as it tolls the quarter hours.

Gave Class Address

Prof. E. A. McGowan, superintendent of the public schools at Wheelersburg, delivered the class address at the commencement exercises at South Webster Thursday evening.

Mrs. E. W. Smith, wife of Deputy Sheriff Smith, who has been bedfast with stomach trouble is slightly improved.

John Grimes has returned from a business trip to Cincinnati, in the interest of the Grimes-Peebles Company.

Candidate Initiated.

Elmer Morris was the only candidate initiated by Portsmouth Camp, Modern Woodmen of America Friday night. The camp is arranging to purchase some new paraphernalia.

Want Troughs Cleaned.

Various horse owners would appreciate it if the public service department would give a little time towards cleaning the public watering troughs. Some contain only several inches of water and the balance is all mud.

Photos Here.

The panoramic picture taken of Mayor Fred Tynes, Safety Director Wells A. Hutchins and the members of the police department were delivered by Photographer Geo. Lore, Saturday.

Buena Vista O. K.

Henry Harcha, aged father of Postmaster John Harcha, of Buena Vista, was a visitor here Saturday. He reported most homes and buildings there back on their foundations.

Life Just A Rest Day To Ortie McManigal

(By United Press.)

Los Angeles, April 26—Without a care and assured of three hearty meals a day and a suite of six carpeted, communicating cells, life has become a succession of comfortable rest days to Ortie McManigal, confessed dynamiter, who was to have been the state's star witness in the trial of the McNamara brothers.

Meanwhile the McNamaras are laboring eight hours a day in prison stripes at San Quentin penitentiary. While the McNamaras are ceaselessly laboring in the dusty prison jute mill, McManigal spends his few waking hours fashioning flimsy paper doilies which he slits into fantastic designs with his well kept hands. McManigal has been Los Angeles county's star boarder for two years. From a drawn faced man of 150 pounds he has developed into the aldermanic size of 230 pounds. His pale, round face is complacent and satisfied.

Occasionally McManigal is given a day's outing. Recently he was absent from jail all day. The records indicated that he had been taken to the district attorney's office—but at night he returned with three tiny mackerel and a smelt. He had been fishing.

McManigal is charged with dynamiting the Llewellyn Iron Works here. He has never been brought to trial. After he testifies at the third trial of Clarence Darrow it is believed he will be quietly released. The county authorities refused to say today what they will do. In the meantime, Ortie McManigal doesn't worry.

Athletic Carnival Draws Big Crowd

Philadelphia, April 26—Nearly 2,500 athletes, representing practically every university and the leading colleges this side of the Rockies, answered the call to Franklin Field today when the historic yearly University of Pennsylvania relay carnival opened. Seventy-three colleges and universities and 127 high and preparatory schools were represented. A great crowd, many of the number being from other cities, gathered at Franklin Field long before the first sharp pistol crack sent the first batch of runners off from their marks.

National interest centered in the four-mile championship relay race for universities. Princeton, Northwestern, Pennsylvania, Ohio State, Pennsylvania State and the big Greek runners from Dartmouth were called to start in this event. Slight odds were offered that Pennsylvania would repeat last year's great race and carry off the American relay title. Western colleges had a record representation in seven other 4-mile relays. But the event that drew the greatest out-of-town crowd was the special match relay, Swarthmore, Carlisle, Georgetown, Penn State, Fordham, Ohio Wesleyan and Western Polytechnic Institute being the contenders.

Among the Olympic champions who graced the occasion was Richards, the high jump title holder from Brigham University. High and preparatory events attracted the greatest attention today, aside from the special match relay races, as this, as usual, was scholastic day.

Six Million Applications

San Francisco, April 26—More than 6,000,000 applications for concession privileges have been received up to date by Frank L. Burt, director of concessions of the Panama Pacific exposition. Only 31 contracts have been granted.

Going After Highbinders

San Francisco, April 26—Headed by United States District Attorney McNab, state and municipal authorities today combined with federal officials to inaugurate a determined campaign to root out "highbinder lawlessness" in California. Scores of lives have been snuffed out during tong wars in San Francisco alone. The plan of the authorities is to deport "hatchet" men as fast as they are apprehended and convicted on the grounds that they have violated their oath of citizenship by carrying concealed weapons.

ARE AFTER A FEW STARS

Maysville, Ky., April 26—Some baseball weather, eh, old scout," said say Manager Peggy Moore is pulling those pill tossers through the mill. Every morning and afternoon the boys are out to the park making the dust fly. Some show class while some don't, and it will not be long before we see who is who.

Every effort is being put forth to make our appearance in the Ohio State league one to be remembered. Although we are the "baby of the league" we'll make some of the old "Grandads of the league" know that Jones cause a great deal of trouble.

Almost every day a new player arrives for a tryout on our team. First baseman Earl Rose and Outfielder Snowden arrived yesterday and worked out with the boys. Manager Moore is expecting three experienced infielders to arrive soon.

It is rumored in baseball circles that an effort will be made to sign up Harrell, Goostree, Mollencamp, Wahl and O'Connell. These men were the stars of the Blue Grass league and would certainly make the Maysville team solid on the infield.

Harrell managed Paris last season and played short, but he is also a second baseman and he can sure hit that old pill, batting over .300 last year.

GOOSTREE IS SIGNED

Manager Peggy Moore of Maysville has corraled Third Baseman Goostree, who was with Ironton last year. He is a good man and will make the Colonels a splendid infielder.

McGraw says he is going to use Matty, Tesreau, Ames, Marquard and Demaree in turn this season. A great quintet of hurlers, we opine.

Jackson, Miss., has a player named Payne and a pitcher named Hurt. The pitcher probably gets hurt before the catcher feels the pain.

Connie Mack has gingered up his Athletics and they are gradually drawing away from their opponents in the American.

THIRD SHOOTING SCRAPE IN A WEEK, VICTIM MAY DIE

HIGHWAYMEN USE GUN ON ONE MAN

(BULLETIN).

Three men were arrested at Ironton, accused of knowing something about the shooting of John L. Walker, colored, at Haverhill. They gave the names of John Siler, Rich Jones and Wm. Page. They were caught on a freight train that had passed Haverhill.

An unknown Negro highwayman with whom he dared to struggle shot and fatally wounded John L. Walker, aged 32, colored of Blackstone, Va., near Haverhill Saturday morning at 3 o'clock, bringing the total number of shootings for the week up to three. All were caused by Negroes.

The first was late Monday night when William Glasgow, a Negro bartender, shot his friend and neighbor, Henry Harris, also colored, in front of Christ Nichols' saloon on Eleventh street after Harris, who was crazed by drink, had repeatedly attacked him with a knife. Harris died two hours later. Glasgow is in the county jail under $500.00 bond awaiting the action of the grand jury.

On Friday evening at 6 o'clock Ed Mason, a Southern Negro, just because he had formed a dislike for S. M. Painter, white, a commissary clerk in Contractor I. P. King's construction camp near the Portsmouth Pressed Brick Company's plant, emptied his gun at him but all four bullets went wide their mark though Painter and other clerks, who were in the commissary car narrowly escaped being struck. Mason frankly admitted the shooting in police court Saturday morning and was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $200.

Mystery In Shooting

The shooting of Walker is somewhat shrouded in mystery and his companion and fellow laborer, Robert Moore, aged 21, of Courtland, Va., is held for investigation at the city prison though it is not believed he was in any way implicated in the affair. Walker, who is unmarried, was shot through the liver, the ball ranging entirely through his body to above the right kidney. Section men of the N. & W. placed him aboard the N. & W. passenger train No. 33 and he was brought to Hempstead hospital. Drs. Fitch, Quinn and Wendelken, who operated on him, found him suffering greatly from the shock and do not hold out any hopes for his recovery.

Tells How He Was Wounded

Just before placed under an anaesthetic Walker told the surgeons that he and Moore were seated beside a bonfire they had built near the N. & W. water tank at Haverhill when five Negroes appeared before them and covering them with guns ordered them to throw up their hands. Walker did not throw his up quick enough and one of the men shot him. They then took two dollars he had and robbed Moore of $1.50, catching an east-bound freight train which came along shortly after. In this Walker's story differs from that of his companion. Moore said Saturday that the robbers walked down the track a short distance and caught a train coming in the direction of Portsmouth. He was unable to fix the time of the shooting further than to say that roosters had commenced crowing. He and Walker belonged to Contractor I. P. King's extra gang doing work on the N. & W. bridge across the Scioto and on the Cincinnati division. They heard some friends were in an extra gang at Haverhill and so decided to look them up. They started to walk at 11 a. m. and arrived at Haverhill about dusk. They found the gang in which their friends were had moved on and another taken its place. Not knowing any of the men they decided to camp out for themselves for the night and built a bonfire.

Were Covered With Guns

He said it was shortly before daybreak when two men covered them with guns and because Walker did not throw up his hands one of them shot him. They then took what money they had and walked away. Moore said he went to the nearest house to call a doctor but there was none to be had. He wanted to talk to Portsmouth over the telephone but was told it would cost him 25 cents and as he only had a five cent piece he gave up the idea and returned to find his wounded companion surrounded by section men who hailed the passenger train and Walker was placed aboard.

The police sent an ambulance to remove the wounded man from the train to the hospital and Deputy Sheriff Pete Smith began investigating the shooting. He took Moore's statement then hurried to the hospital to get a statement from Walker but found he had already been placed on the operating table. The physicians though told him what Walker had said about the affair.

Police Going After Gun Men

The police feeling that the presence of the numerous extra gangs of Negroes which are strung along the N. & W. repairing damages caused by the flood may continue to cause trouble, expect to make a special effort to capture gun toters. After the attempt was made on S. M. Painter's life Friday evening Detective James A. Bauens, Officers Baer and Flowers and some commissary clerks and timekeepers made a thorough search of every car and occupants but Mason's gun was the only one found. They returned again at 3 o'clock Saturday morning and made another search but without result. If the Negroes had any weapons they had successfully concealed them somewhere.

FORMER RESIDENTS ARE IN THE DIVORCE COURT

(By Associated Press.)

Chillicothe, O., April 26.—The court this afternoon refused to give Charles Bickel a divorce from his wife, Hattie Molster Bickel. Bickel was oredred to pay his wife $500 alimony immediately, and the rest of the alimony will be fixed later. The court summed up the case as a "case of a handsome man and a woman who had grown old in her wifely duties."

The Bickels have four children. The testimony was so sensational that the children were not allowed in the court room, and was not fit to be printed.

Former Portsmouth residents Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Bickel, are the principals in a lively divorce suit in the courts at their present home at Chillicothe. Mrs Bickel was a Miss Hattie Molster before her mariage and both have numerous relatives here.

Concerning the divorce case the Chillicothe Gazette, of Friday said:

A lively contest in the suit for divorce of Charles D. Bickel against his wife, Hattie, developed in Common Pleas Court Friday when the case was called. Unlike the usual run of divorce suits, over in a few hours, the case was continued throughout the entire day, and at press time gave indication of a continuance tomorrow. Gross neglect and extreme cruelty were the grounds alleged by the husband in his suit, while his testimony on the stand gave the details of much of his past history, since their marriage in 1891.

Bickel who is a traveling agent for the Bailley Table Company of Jamestown, N. Y., claimed that his wife had threatened to poison him when he came home from his trips, and when he left would express her wish that "the train would run off the track and kill him."

While he claims his wife was extravagant in the houshold expenditures, she was extremely economical in her correspondence with him, claiming that she only wrote once to his six times, while beside the household allowance of $100 per month, she would contract debts. He complained of his wife opening his letters, but admitted writing love letters to himself.

The defense began their inning shortly before 1:30 o'clock. So far it seemed a question of combative temperaments.

A Moving Sidewalk Planned

Chicago, April 26 A moving sidewalk five miles in length will be recommended to the city council along with the plans for the new Lake Shore Boulevard between Jackson park and Drake park. A manufacturer who proposed the sidewalk said: "The new Boulevard will be of great benefit for those of us who own automobiles. Let's spend a few dollars for the great mass of people who have to walk."

AT THE STATE CAPITOL BY GEO. T. BLAKE.

Columbus, April 26.—Several cities are after the annual convention of the Ohio Sunday School association, scheduled for Portsmouth during the first week in June, which has been "called off" on account of the flood. General Secretary C. W. Shinn, of Columbus announced today that it would be held in the fall, at a place yet to be determined.

Secretary Shinn, in reviewing the county conventions now in progress over the state, credits their unusually attendance to the co-operation of Ohio editors in boosting. The association has established a temporary press bureau in Columbus and editors over Ohio are assisting in the state wide movement almost without exception. "Publicity pays big returns," the secretary says.

Contrary to expectations, Governor Cox will not send a large list of appointments to the senate for confirmation on Monday when the general assembly returns to formally adjourn. The appointments he will send will be for old places, and not for any of the new positions created by the general assembly at the session. The Harmon appointees whose names were sent to the senate at the beginning of the session, just before Governor Cox began his duties, and which names were withdrawn by the latter, are awaiting the governor's action Monday with no little interest. They are wondering if he will return their names for confirmation. It is believed that most of the names will go back. It seems to be generally believed that some of the Harmon appointees will be dropped. The members of the state license board will not be appointed for some weeks yet. Other new appointments will not be taken up by the governor until after the legislative leaves.

For two weeks or more after the session closes the governor's time will be taken up almost entirely in going over the bills passed in the closing hours of the session. Of course the delay in making of the appointments is causing keen disappointment among the small army of applicants for jobs, but there is nothing for the mto do but to grin and bear it.

State Phinter, E. A. Crawford is calling attention to the fact that the new constitution constitutional amendment proposals to be voted upon by the people may only be published in newspapers for a period of five weeks preceeding the election, instead of for six months, as formerly. There will be four proposals submitted to the people this year, and many publishers thinking that these are to be published for the period specified under the old constitution, are writing to the state printfor information regarding the awarding of the contracts. These amendments are published in two papers of opposite politics in each county seat. German newspapers in addition, are also eligible to carry such advertisements.

It has been the custom for time imemenorial to pay l egislative employes ten days extra pay at the close of each session, but this form of graft is to be abolished The custom began with such employes who had to remain to dispose of work at the end of the session, such as boxing up and shipping effects of the members. The practice grew so that all employes were allowed to draw extra pay. This year these emplayes, including the pages, have aplied for this easy money. The committee on employes of the house has decided to recommend that pay be only given those who are obiged to remain after the close of the session to clean up tag-end work.

The Socialists are holding their state convention in Columbus, but the attendance is small. The party is temporarily without a state executive committee. The old committee elected a year ago was recalled because of its pronounced friendship for the Industrial Workers of the World. Frank Midney of Youngstown, who is a delegate, will put up a fight in favor of that organization. The convention will nominate a state secretary, to be chosen by a referendum vote. The Socialists are opposing the non-partisan ballot. They favor partisanship.

Woman Is As Old As She Looks

No woman wants to look old. Many in their effort to look youthful resort to the "beauty doctor's" prescriptions. Their mistake is that they visit the wrong department in the drug store. Beauty depends upon health.

Worry, sleepless nights, headaches, pains, disorders, irregularities and weaknesses of a distinctly feminine character in a short time bring the dull eye, the "crow's feet," the haggard look, drooping shoulders, and the faltering step.

To retain the appearance of youth you must retain health. Instead of lotions, powders and paints, ask your druggist for Announcement.

During the recent flood my entire equipment of type, etc., used in the manufacture of Printing and Rubber Stamps, was destroyed. I am pleased to state that I have put in an entire new plant. The cabinets, cases, stands, etc., are of steel construction. The outfit entire—including type—was purchased through the Cincinnati house of the American Type Founders Co., the world's largest vendors of printers' supplies, which in itself is sufficient guarantee that my new equipment is strictly modern and "up-to-now."

Beginning Monday I will commence the casting of Rubber Stamps and the Wednesday following will be in shape to take care of printing orders. For the past five years I have been scheduling my orders for Printing and Rubber Stamps through the "mail order way," but from now on I will pay special attention to the wants of LOCAL PATRONS, as my new equipment will permit me to take on several new customers.

WANT WILL SET ASIDE

Through the channels of the common pleas court Sarah Hurst is seeking to have the last will and testament and attached codicil of her aunt, the late Mrs. Catherine Williamson, set aside. Mary Gains Collins, Mattie Minters, Minta Hampton and William Harris, executor of the estate, are named as defendants in the petition filed by Attorneys Theo. K. Funk and J. P. Packham. It is alleged that the codicil revoked the second item of the will, naming Mary Gains Collins and Mattie Minters and Minta Hampton, all of Cincinnati, and daughters of the executor, as sole legatees.

The plaintiff avers that the papers admitted in the local courts were not the last will and testament of the decedent.

DUMP FIRES ANNOYING

Dump fires at the foot of Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets and along the west side of Chillicothe street in that vicinity caused considerable alarm and trouble Friday night.

The wind that raged caused a perfect shower of sparks to fall on drift piles scattered on Findlay street and other parts of the North End. The Seventh street engine company was called out at 9 o'clock to fight the fires and remained there until 2 o'clock this morning by which time all danger was temporarily removed.

Reduce Toll On Coal

Denver, April 26—A decision of the Colorado railroad commission that will be of great interest to shippers and consumers of coal in the Rocky Mountain region went into effect today. It compels 25 railroads to reduce rates upon various grades of coal from the northern Colorado fields from 55, 50 and 60 cents to 55, 50 and 45 cents per ton. The decision, which calls for a general reduction of 28½ per cent, is expected to result in a reduction in price to consumers.

Will Hold Land Show

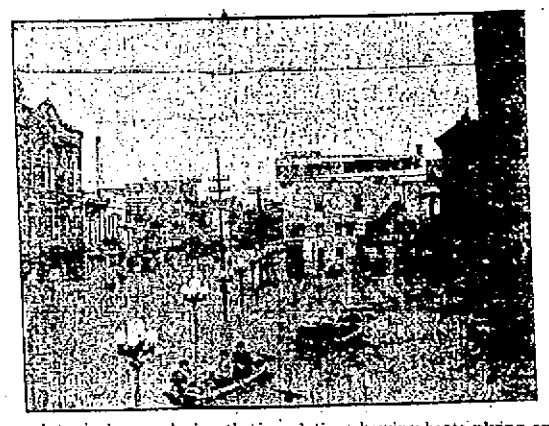

San Francisco, April 26—Preliminary plans were completed today for a monster Pacific Coast land show to be held in this city during the week of the Portola celebration in October, and for several days previous to the opening of that event. It is expected that more than $1,000,000 will be put into the show by exhibitors from Arizona, California, Oregon, Washington and the other Pacific Coast states. The land show management will expend $75,000 alone in preparation for the big display.

A great stretch of canvass covering from 145,000 to 150,000 square feet will house the exhibition. According to Edward H. Brown, commissioner of the Panama-Pacific World's Fair, who will be the director of the land show, the exhibition will be an attempt "to show prospective home seekers the entire agricultural wealth of the Pacific Coast in a greatly condensed form."

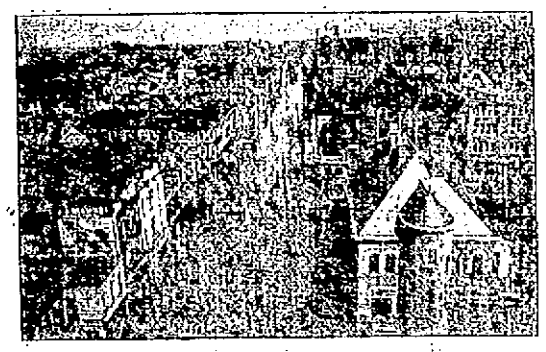

Attends Meeting.

J. W. Shoemaker has gone to Roanoke, where he will attend a meeting of N. & W. car repairers.

GEORGE SCHNEIDER TO RECEIVE A STATE JOB

George Schneider, of the shoe department of the Salvage company and former director of public service, has received word from Senator Hudson that he will secure an appointment from Governor Cox, the position to be with the Boys' Industrial school at Lancaster.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Schneider will go to Lancaster and both will be identified with the work there. Their duties have not yet been defined, but as the governor is a personal friend of Mr. Schneider, and he has been identified with politics for many years, the appointment has been a certainty for some time.

Mrs. Schneider leaves this afternoon for Ripley, Ohio, where she will place their 11-year-old son in the St. Michael's school, and she will then go to Cincinnati to visit Mr. Schneider's parents. Later before going to Lancaster Mrs. Schneider will be the guest of relatives at Bellefontaine. Mr. Schneider will be here for some little time yet.

SHOT A CAT JINX TO PURSUE HIM

"I wouldn't be in that fellow's shoes for Ten Dollars, and then some," remarked a man on Offnere street, Thursday, as he gazed at the manly form of Special Officer Jack Leeds, who is on duty at the railway crossing.

"Why not?" asked a friend.

"Why," replied the first man, "he just shot a cat, and you know it's awful bad luck to kill a cat. It sure puts a jinx on you that you can't shake off."

"Bunk," scoffed the second man.

"Well, you just see," earnestly said the first man, as they passed on.

Which goes to show that there are a lot of people still left in the world who regulate their lives by signs and superstitions.

Billy's Rain Came On The Fourth Day

And the fourth day it rained. After predicting rain for three straight days Bill But In that famous little weather man finally hit the bull's eye. He has been in grave danger of being shorn of his powers as a weather prognosticator. Believing in the old adage "if you don't succeed at first, try try again" Billy But In stuck to his post as he knew full well that it was bound to rain sometime so predicts cloudy days, rain or snow, fair or warmer and slightly cool with equal facility is not Saturday's downpour partly atoned for his miscalculations of the past three days. Instead of harassing rain the weather man sent us three beautiful spring days balmy and sunshiny and Billy But In was about ready to pack his little grip and flee to pastures new. But alas. A sympathetic rain came Saturday so Billy is once more smiling and will remain on the job. He has had a rather strenuous week of it and is convinced that the life of the fellow who

Ironton Child Had Serious Accident

Ironton, O., April 26.—Rose Marie, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Marting, met with a distressing accident Friday afternoon while playing at the Marting garage, and as a result she is now suffering from severe acid burns about the face and hands, and may bear the marks for life.

Little Rose Marie early in the afternoon went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Matring to play with their children. The Marting home is near the garage and in the course of the afternoon the little tots went out in the garage to play. Every child is naturally curious, and little Rose Marie is no exception, and therein and immediately the acid the door she placed her hands therein a immdmediately the acid began to burn and with a cry of pain the child withdrew her hands and placed them over her eyes. The acid then began to burn her face and the grief of the little one was pitiful to see.

The men working at the garage took her to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Marting and Dr. W. F. Marting was summoned and gave the little girl medical attention in a measure alleviating the pain. The burns were pronounced serious and it was thought for a time that the eyesight would be destroyed, but from all indications last evening the sight will not be destroyed.

Diphtheria Prevalent

Four new cases of diphtheria developed in the city Friday one at the home of Elmert Baey, of No. 1733 Offnere street and three at George McClone's home No. 1224 Union street. Both homes have been quarantined. The spinal meningitis case at A. J. Mooter's home on Fourth street was discharged.

Skeleton Of Indian Found On A Farm

Workmen on James H. Moore's farm near Waverly several days ago found the skeleton of what is supposed to be that of one of the band of Indians that was located in that vicinity many years ago. The skeleton was in a fairly good state of preservation. Mr. Moore says it was that of an Indian owing to the high cheek bones.

Local A. I. U. Will Go After Reunion

A boosters' committee, headed by Arthur Maule, with Henry Becker and Dr. Chas. Wendelken as his associates, has been appointed by the local chapter of the A. I. U., the committee to arrange for a rally next Thursday night, when Deputy Sidney E. Bash will be present.

Notice has been given of awards offered by the grand lodge for the largest May Day class. Premiums of $100, $75, $50 and $25 are to be offered, the percentage of gain to be based on the size of the chapter in order to enable the smaller chapters of the state to compete with the more pretentious ones.

Rev. McAfee Will Preach At College

Rev. T. H. McAfee, pastor of the First Baptist church has been invited to preach the baccalaureate sermon at the commencement week of the Rio Grande college of Rio Grande, Ohio.

Rev. McAfee has accepted the invitation, extended by Simeon Bing, the president, and will go to Rio Grande for the morning of Sunday, June 15, the date of the sermon.

Rio Grande has a number of graduates this year, and the baccalaureate sermon will open the festivities of commencement week which will be closed by the graduation exercises and the presentation of diplomas.

Vacation Of Police Is Cut A Few Days

Beginning May 1st, the city police and firemen will be given a week's vacation with pay.

It has been customary to grant the members of the two departments a ten days vacation but owing to the extra expense the city has been put to by the flood the officials feel they cannot afford to give more than a week this year. The hiring of substitutes will also be dispensed with. The police will double up while the firemen will use a man from the Hill Top company for substitute duty so that while that company will be short one man the two down town companies will carry full crews.

No Home For P. O.

Holding a five years' lease on the Woodman's hall at South Portsmouth, Joe Davis does not intend to relinquish it, and consequently Uncle Sam will not get he building to establish a postoffice in it, according to Davis in a statement to The Times.

As soon as Mr. Nichol vacates the small room he now occupies, Mr. Davis will associate himself with W. H. Flanagan in the grocery business in the building on a large scale.

In the meantime the government's hunt for a new home for the postoffice goes merrily on.

COBBLERS ARE TO MEET MILL NINE

Childs Picks Team For Sunday's Game

Manager Jefferson, of the Portsmouth Steel club, announced the following line-up for the game with the Cobblers tomorrow afternoon: Staten, first base; Evans, second; Staiger, third; Bourgholtzer, shortstop; Gordon, left; McColl, center; Milstead, right. Sampson brothers will form the battery. Manager Childs will use the regular line-up of the Portsmouth club, with Bevan on second and the recruit pitchers. The rain today was welcomed by Ground-keeper Allen, as the playing field had become very hard and needed to be rolled. This will be done tomorrow morning, and unless the rain continues the fans will see the grounds in mid-season shape.

Mr. E. C. Sloan, manager of the Ironton Gas Co., was in the city Friday, and while here booked the Eagle Ball Club for a game at Ironton tomorrow afternoon. Mr. Sloan stated that the base ball outlook in Ironton could not be brighter. Last Sunday a game played between two clubs made-up from the training squad drew over 600 people and with good weather over 1500 would be out tomorrow. Manager McClintock's work thus far has been very satisfactory to the club owners and he has assembled a good club. Manager "Issy" Goodman, of the Eagle club, assured Mr. Sloan that he would take a strong club to Ironton and would endeavor to secure a couple of players from Manager Childs to strengthen his line-up.

The Midget Ball Club will journey to Maysville tomorrow and battle with Peggy Moore's club for an exhibition game. The Midget club is one of the best amateur clubs in this section and will no doubt give the Maysville club an intersting battle.

Yesterday completed the fifth day of training without interference by "Old Jupiter Pluvius." The players indulged in light work today, owing to the soft condition of the playing field, and those who watch the game tomorow will no doubt be agreeably surprised at the fine condition of the players.

A change has been made in the opening dates. Huntington will open at Ironton, and Maysville at Lexington. The Portsmouth club will play at Charleston, and Hamilton at Chillicothe, as originally announced. All doubt concerning the situation at Hamilton was removed at the Columbus meeting, when the representatives of the Hamilton club stated that the baseball situation was O. K.

The Ironton club needs an experienced catcher and will close a deal the coming week for one. Manager McClintock, with this exception, has assembled a good club and hasn't made much noise about it. The pair of players sent to him by Dick Smith, of the Scranton club, have the goods. Kearns and Trautman and Whalen are fixtures, while his outfield will include Jack Kendall, last year with the Springfield club.

TRAINING DAYS AT MILLBROOK

FANS! WATCH OUT FOR MR. JOHNSON

It should be no great shock to the talent this season if Walter Johnson compiles the greatest record a pitcher ever made.

The stalwart Senator looks primed for his greatest year, and with a new contract at stake for 1914 he is more than likely to go the distance at top speed.

Johnson is already off with a whirlwind flash. He had worked 36 innings up to yesterday against big league clubs, counting exhibition and regular contests, without an earned run. Only one tally has been secured from his pitching, and this resulted from an infield slip and was not charged against him.

Last year the Human Shrapnel allowed but one and a half earned runs to the game all the year. He also won 32 contests. This season it isn't unlikely that he will hold opposing teams down to one run or less earned, and it would be no upset to see him win 40 games or more. He has a good, fast ball club back of him, and with a trifling show of batting strength while he is pitching it will be a long time between defeats.

As great as Johnson has been before, he has never looked as good for an April start. He seems to be working easily at every stage, and so is able to hold his reserve force for the show down. Johnson doesn't have to press to obtain results. Working without effort he still has more stuff on the ball than almost any other slabman in the game. Once keyed up there is no end in sight. It's only a question as to whether or not his catcher can hold him at the top of his stride.

GLITTERING STAR PICKED UP

In Agnew the St. Louis Americans, it is said, have picked up one of the best catchers that ever graduated into a big league. Critics all around the circuit who have seen him work frankly declare that Agnew is a star and should develop into one of the greatest receivers in the history of the giddy old game. He has an arm of steel, is fast on his feet and is a splendid handler of shoots and slants.

Wrigley on The Job

Hamilton, April 25.—Manager George Wrigley of the Hamilton State team, rolled into town yesterday afternoon to take charge of the team work. "Zeke" as he said he was after known, was a little secluded yesterday but came out with bells on this morning. Zeke said that he didn't know why our city shouldn't come back in baseball just as easily as others have. He said that it was up to the team to show the city that it could support a team without any trouble and that he was here to give Hamilton the best he could secure.

Zeke is a baseball man and he expects all his players to be the same. Until the men get the stiffness out of their arms they will have to practice twice daily, in the morning at 10 o'clock and in the afternoon at 1:30. After they get somewhat into condition they will only have the one daily turnout, from 1 to 4.

The team will be here Saturday or Sunday. There will be a number of the old Lima boys with them, among whom will be Lee Hobbs of Hamilton. With these will also be mixed a large number of the local aspirants. The team as it stands today is as follows: Leibrook, Francisco and Friend as catchers; Schanze, Clark, Bailing, H. Runkle, Noon, O'Dell, Cox, Dobbins, Spong, as pitchers; Hoskins and Viderick, first base; Daubert, shortstop; Hobbs and Schieke, third; Wrigley, Ultnellus, second; the outfield will consist of Beswick, Meister, Wilcox, Knedle and Theobald.

IN FOR A FINE YEAR

Larry Lajoie is playing great ball for Cleveland. His fielding has been better than his swatting, and goodness knows it must be silky, as Lajoie is some clubsmith, one of the greatest in the history of the old pastime.

Billy Doyle In Maysville

Scout Billy Doyle has been in Maysville all this week assisting Peggy Moore in shaping up his team. Moore has already cut down his squad to 18 and four or five more are to return to the village grocery and join the Whittling club.

25 PLAYERS ARE AT WORK

Huntington, April 26.—Contestants for steady berths on the Blue Sox pay-roll, numbering about 25, have reported to Manager Wright and training season is on full blast. Boss Sam led his blue-hosed tribe to Marshall field Wednesday afternoon for the first real practice session of the season. Others will follow daily as the time for the opening of the season approaches.

Quite a few likely looking youngsters have been rounded up, judging from Wednesday's workout. Several of the recruits give promise of showing class when they succeed in working the kinks out of winter-bound muscles. It is too early, however, to make any predictions as to Huntington's chances. More later on that subject. For the present we will have to rest content with the knowledge that a large army of fans is here, prepared to make things hum for the next few weeks.

Cubeb Marsans Is Shifted To Right

Tinker has made a shift in his outfield. He sent Bates to right and Cubeb Marsans to center. In discussing the change Thursday, Tinker said:

"I sent Bates to right field and Marsans to center because I believe it is safest to have a left-handed thrower in right, as he can make quick returns of hits along the foul lines and stop many runners who would otherwise make two-baggers. The left-handed man has a margin that will help him to turn many such tricks, where even the best of right-handed men would fail. Marsan's great throwing wing can then be used to get runners trying to score on flies to center field, and he, at this position, will save quite a few scores for us."

PITCHED ONLY 67 BALLS

New York, April 26.—Manager McGraw today claimed a world's record for Christy Mathewson. Big six pitched but 67 balls in beating Philadelphia the other day. Had Mathewson struck out every man that faced him he could not have pitched less than 81 balls, but he put them where the batters had to hit and only five fell safe. Using but 67 pitched balls, Mathewson threw an average of a fraction over two balls to each man.

New Pitcher For Chilly

Chillicothe, April 26.—Another pitcher named Burnett reported to Manager Newnham last night. He hails from Springfield and he says he hasn't got a sore arm. He made a hit with the regulars at once by telling them he is a cripple over at Springfield that can play rings around the most that are here.

Old Timers Practicing

Doc Abbott and Graver Goshorn, Ohio State standbys, have reported to Chillicothe. Abbott is an old timer and is still there with the wallop. Werner, a first baseman from Cincinnati, after a tryout of one day, pulled up and returned to his home.

SAYS CHENEY HAS GOODS

In a letter to local friends Al Bridwell says he believes that Larry Cheney is one of the greatest pitchers he ever saw and he has glimpsed at a few hurlers of the pill in his time, having been identified with the game 23 years, 11 months and 2 days.

Kendall Canned

Jack Kendall has been unconditionally released by Springfield. It is likely that he will catch on with some Ohio State league team. Kendall is a fast man, a good hitter, but he has a poor throwing arm.

Turned Over To The Reds

Two players have been turned over to the Reds by the Cubs at the waiver price. They are William Powell, pitcher, and Michael Berghammer, infielder. If Powell can pitch and Berghammer can hammer the pill, the deal may condone for the three defeats handed the Reds by the Cubs.

Uniforms Ordered

When the City Sunday School baseball league season opens on May 10 the First Baptist team is to appear on the turf diked out in new uniforms. Anderson Bros. have received the order for the shipment of the uniforms.

GREAT DOPE IS IT NOT?

Frank Chance, in one of his recent articles says that Mordecai Brown was "always a splendid batsman." Evidently the man who writes Frank's stuff should wise up as to the records, for Chance himself would have never made such a break. As Browne himself says, "If I could keep my hind foot out of the water bucket when I'm batting, I might hit a little." Browne hit .290 last season, but was in only a few games. His usual output has been anywhere from .120 to 150 every year.

League To Open

Amateur baseball is to be found in the local fold again this season with the City Sunday School league as sponsor for Saturday afternoon games. Four teams are to comprise the parent organization, First Presbyterian, First Baptist, Trinity and United Brethren.

Possibility of a second organization looms up on the baseball horizon. At a meeting of the representatives of the various sunday schools Friday night at the First Presbyterian gymnasium, application was made by several other churches to be represented in the league. These applications were necessarily turned down as it was feared that a six or eight-club league would be unwieldy. The promoters of the rejected teams are now considering the organization of a second league.

Three committees have been appointed to handle the reins up to the prying off the lid of the season. They are:

On Grounds—Barber, Danfield, Samson and Bourgholtzer.

Rules—George D. Scudder, Zuhars, Pierce, Mason and Samson.

Schedule—Zuhars, Etterling and Schlichter.

Another meeting of the league is to be held next Tuesday night.

Shamrocks Have Game

The Shamrocks will play the All-Stars at Riverside park Sunday and the game will be called at 2:30. The Shamrocks will line up as follows: Bartlett, left field; Mason, third base; Anderson, shortstop; Cottip, center field; Remey, second base; Spence, first base; Sowrts, right field; Hopp, catcher, and Grace, pitcher.

Boehler Let Out

Rube Boehler's stay in Detroit was short and sweet. The former Newark Molder has been turned over to the St. Joe team in the Western league. Boehler was a running mate of Ted Hanley, who died while the Giants were training at Marlin Springs.

WAS A VERITABLE ICICLE

Once there was a boob, who never rooted at a ball game.

He rarely missed one, but he always remained silent, wrapped in a frosted blanket of indifference, as it were.

He made no visible display of his pleasure over a good play or his disgust over one that had been ivoried. But he always fussed his head off when he went to see "Nell, the Wronged Modiste," in three acts and two slops. Funny about some ginks, isn't it?

Moral—A thrilling play on the diamond is as tame as a race between a tortoise and a greyhound to a thrilling moment on the stage, that is to some people. Depends upon how you are constitutionally inclined.

Real Game for May 3

What promises to be one of the best amateur games of baseball this season will be played when the Gilbert Grocery company's team meets the Joseph G. Reed company's team on May 3. If anybody has witnessed the games that were played between the Doctors and Lawyers or the Police and the River City band, it will give some idea of the exceptional good plays that will be pulled off. Both teams expect to present their strongest lineup and each team is after the other's scalp.

JOHNSON UPHOLDS NEW RULING

The scoring rules have been changed, Ban Johnson, president of the American league, sending out an official notice to that effect. Heretofore, American league scorers have credited the batter with a sacrifice in cases where he reached first on a bunt when an unsuccessful attempt was made to catch another runner. Johnson rules that these bunts should be scored as hits. This is the "Cincinnati system" and has been voted against by the scorers of other towns. Johnson, however, alleges that the Baseball Writers' association appointed a rule committee at its spring meeting and that said committee arrived at this decision.

LEAGUE STRONG ON MANAGERS

Portsmouth—Childs.
Hamilton—Wrigley.
Charleston—Welzel.
Maysville—Moore.
Ironton—McClintock.
Huntington—Wright.
Lexington—Yancey.
Chillicothe—Newnham.

Glimpse the list of campaigners who will head Ohio State league clubs this season and you will immediately decide that there is going to be a battle before the decision is awarded in September. With malice aforethought every club has dug in and lined up with a foxy war-horse, well fitted to boss an outfit in class D company.

In Pete Childs, Portsmouth has one of the foxiest pilots in minor league circles. Sir Peter has been at the helm for several seasons now and he has always managed to keep his batters well up toward the head of the list. He can be counted on to finish his club in the first division this year as he has a wealth of good material to choose from.

McClintock, Newnham and Wrigley have all been tried and found capable of producing the goods. Newnham formerly bossed Newark.

McClintock led the Lima club in bygone years and Zeke Wrigley has headed both the Lima and Chillicothe clubs. All are seasoned leaders and can be counted upon to put well balanced fighting machines in the field.

Peggy Moore, while he cannot be termed an experienced leader, got a taste of bossing the Nailers last season, and while he was ditched rather unceremoniously, he made good. Boss Wright of our own beloved Blue Sox, and Friend Welzel of the Charleston Senators, are the dark horses of the league. Wright and Welzel, though, are both wise heads at the old army game and we believe that they will find no trouble winning their spurs during the coming campaign.

With the talented array heading the various clubs of the league, prospects point to one of the warmest conflicts ever waged for possession of the [illegible] bunting.—Huntington Advertiser.

Juniors Cop Game

In six innings of play at the River City grounds Friday afternoon, the Juniors of the local High School defeated a picked team from the Senior and Sophomore classes by the score of 12 to 2. [illegible] batting by [illegible], Lilly, Bevans and [illegible] featured.

[illegible] Warner and six errors spilled by the Sophs were responsible for their defeat. [illegible] was hit hard and [illegible] by the Juniors. The two teams lined up thusly:

Juniors—[illegible], 3b; [illegible], 1b; [illegible], 2b; Bevans, lf; [illegible], rf; Lilly, 2b; [illegible], cf; J. Warner, c; [illegible] Warner, p.

PECULIAR PLAY BOBS UP

Through a little carelessness of McGraw in not giving the name of a substitute batter, the Giants in their last game with Philadelphia Friday lost a good pitcher's battle in a most [illegible] manner.

With three on McCormick was [illegible] as [illegible] and the [illegible] delivered with a [illegible], [illegible] to center and two runners crossed each other home in [illegible]. But alas! His umps waved both men back to their respective stations and announced that McCormick's name had not been given to him. Therefore it would be illegal for him to bat, so his hit was wasted and New York then failed to score, the Phillies getting the side in order. With the [illegible] finished.

It was a funny play and for quite a while the fans could not dope out the situation. Many of them strayed on the field and there were [illegible] of excitement for a few moments. Before a substitute swatsmith can take a swing at the pill his name must be given to the umpire and he in turn must announce the batter's name before the change is legal.

Umpire Klem's version of the affair is that McCormick batted too hastily and cracked out the single while he was making the announcement of the change in hitters. The New York reporters claim that Klem forgot to announce the change until McCormick had slapped out the [illegible] hit.

Spencer Is Hitting Ball

[illegible] Spencer, who was recently shifted to the Montgomery team in the southern league, is playing first base in his [illegible] is hitting the ball with [illegible] and persistency. Last week he batted at a .500 clip. Evidently the [illegible] of the [illegible] has not affected Spencer's batting eye.

MAYSVILLE GAME WAS CALLED OFF

Owing to the unsettled weather conditions the Midgets will not go to Maysville Sunday to clash with Peggy Moore's Ohio State leaguers, the game being called off Saturday.

JOE TINKER STRONG IN THE PINCHES

It makes a lot of difference when a team has a timely hitter in its lineup. Take Joe Tinker for instance.

Ever since the season opened he has been hitting when a bingle was needed. His special delight is to poke the pill to an unguarded spot with runners on the sacks. He has been two-basing and three-basing with exhilarating frequency.

It was Christy Mathewson who once said that he would rather face Hans Wagner or Heinie Zimmerman come up in the pinches than Tinker. It is notably true that Tinker has robbed Matty of a number of hard earned victories by slamming out long, resounding clouts with the sacks cluttered with players with that "I-want-to-run-home expression" on their countenances. Joe never loses his nerve or his confidence.

Teachers Should Get Their Pay At Once

SAYS RUTH PARRETT

By Ruth Parrett

Poorly paid, much demanded of, there is an army in this land of ours, mainly composed of women, that does more real work than any other body of organized workers in the world.

This is the army of school teachers. Their wage is little more than a living one. They are in many cases delegated to raise whole families whose fathers and mothers are too lazy or ignorant to do it, and they prepare themselves for their work with a large outlay of hard work, special training and expenditure of a good deal of money.

The school teacher it is asked that she shall be intellectual, moral, well-educated, refined, possess every qualification of a gentlewoman, and the in many instances run up against circumstances that would try the patience of a saint and need the physical skill of a prize fighter.

The school teacher is said to work only five days in the week, some six hours per day. In reality she works seven days, and some ten or twelve hours of each of those days.

Her work doesn't end when she leaves the school room door. If she hasn't a great bundle of papers under her arm, that will keep her up half the night grading, studying over, and incidentally losing her temper over, also, she has a hundred and one problems that must be solved before she appears before her class in the morning.

She is expected by many a fond set doting mother and father to supply a plentiful amount of gray matter to heads that are empty; she is told to train the kid or lassie in etiquette, in ethics, in morals, in everything under the sun beside the tasks alloted to her by the school board of filling their craniums with knowledge on the three R's.

Paid poorly, the teacher in addition is given work only nine or at the most ten months a year. She has two or more months in which she is compelled to be idle, perhaps she can ill afford it, though in most cases it takes the two months to undo the ravages of the nine or ten nerve-tearing, unrelenting work in the school room.

She needs her money, she needs it badly, for in some instances she is supporting other members of the family. Sometimes she is keeping a younger member in school, and some of the younger teachers are endeavoring to save to satisfy their own college aspirations.

Teachers in the Portsmouth schools have received no money since March 22nd, and what is more to the point, they do not know when they will receive any. During the flood period many of them had gone to their homes where they were teachers from out of the city. They returned here, some of them once, others for the second time, after they found that they could not take up the work. Those who live here have been, like everybody else, put to additional expense on account of the flood, and they have no funds to meet that expense. Their salaries at the best are not so affluent that they can save extensively out of them.

Some of the teachers have taught half the month just closed, some of them for a week and some of them very little. The question troubling the School Board, which they hope to settle at tonight's meeting, is just how they can pay these teachers in a legal way.

"You can tell every teacher you see", said Dr. W. D. Tremper this morning. "That the School Board would be tickled to death to pay them every cent that is due them, but they are obliged to wait until they have legal authority to do so."

"That is why we have asked the city solicitor for his opinion," continued Dr. Tremper, "and we will do whatever he says is best."

"There is one thing certain, the teachers will get all the money due them under their contracts, even if we have to extend the school term a sufficient period to allow them to teach the time out. It is possible that this will be the best we can do, but we hope not."

"You see we have state examiners who examine the books every year, and if they should find that we have signed checks for which we have no legal authority, we the members of the Board, can be made liable for this amount. The total payroll for a single months amounts to between six and seven thousand dollars, and we do not care to assume the danger of having to pay that amount of money."

So the question turns upon a technical point of law, entirely outside of the jurisdiction of the School Board members, and the opinion as issued by City Solicitor Stanley McCall tonight will decide the matter.

THE MARKETS

Chicago, Ill., April 26—Since our last week's report the markets on corn has worked its way down until today is closed the lowest it has been for the past three weeks. Farmers in the southwest are pretty well up with their Spring work, and deliveries of all cereals have begun to increase, as a consequence it is having its effect upon the market. The receipts at the terminal markets are increasing daily, and as the farmers get through with their Spring planting they will continue to increase, as the prices being paid for corn by the country elevators are very attractive at this time.

The grand prospect for winter wheat in every winter wheat section, without an exception, is above the average for the past ten years, and if nothing happens to cause deterioration the winter wheat crop will exceed ten years' average by considerable. As a consequence of this prospect, the wheat market is feeling the effect of it, and there has been some de of a decline in the past week.

Oats have also felt a decline, as the Spring seeding is pretty well over, and the demand for oats is confined now to the mills, and for feeding purposes. With the enormous crop that was raised last year, there remains the largest surplus that ever was known at this season. While prospects are not flattering for any radical decline in other cereals, the feeling is, if the market holds firm at the present prices, the traders will be pretty well satisfied.

GERMAN PAPER OUT AGAIN

The Portsmouth Correspondent, local German weekly newspaper, Friday made its first appearance since the flood and as it issue of March 27 did not reach all readers when the water came up, copies were sent along with those of yesterday. The Correspondent's plant at Third and Washington streets was in 15 feet of water and it has required weeks of hard work to get the cuipment in shape again.

Fighting Fires

Residents along the Chillicothe pike near Davis Station have been kept busy the past few days fighting a nasty fire that gained a start in the myriads of drift which the flood left along this highway. In several spots homes have been endangered.

Speeder Is Fined

Roscoe Davis was fined $5 in police court Saturday for violating the speed ordinance, but the fine was suspended, pending good behavior.

Davis took Jack Cropper's automobile from the Portsmouth Auto Company's garage Thursday night and started on a joy-ride, he and William Prior having arranged with some young women to meet them. Harry Howe gave chase and overtook the machine in Kinney Lane. It was brought back to the city and police were notified. Mr. Howe did not care to prosecute Davis on a more serious charge, and so he was summoned into court for speeding.

FEDERAL ROUND-UP OF YEGG SAFE BLOWERS

True Tales of Adventure

THESE stories will start in the New York Herald on Sunday, May 11. Synopsis of the first six instalments follows:

1. The capture of John F. McCarthy, alias John O. Dandrell, alias West Philadelphia Johnny and his band of desperadoes. Took five Post Office Inspectors to trail and capture them, but not until after two hundred Post Office safe robberies and numerous murders had been credited to them.

2. Philadelphia Johnny turned his attention to banks in small cities and country towns. Sixty odd bank robberies and thousands of dollars were the result, but betrayal by a former pal was his undoing.

3. James Johnson, alias "Portland Ned," was the brains of the entire yegg world operating east of the Mississippi. His love for his wife led him to kill her betrayer before he finally was run to cover.

4. Band of forty yeggs started out to make general clean-up of every State south of the Mason and Dixon line. Three hundred robberies and a dozen or more murders resulted. Entire band captured after two inspectors joined the yeggs.

5. The Yeggman's Haven. Two respectable brothers in Charleston, S. C., conducted three notorious cribs where all yeggs in trouble found haven. Through these cribs stolen stamps were marketed and protection for a time was afforded to all.

6. Tom Lee's New York clearing house for yeggmen and his wonderful system, involving hundreds of office boys and clerks.

While these stories read like fiction, nevertheless they are true in every particular. Editors recognize the value of adventure in circulation building, but demand something besides the flight of a writer's brain.

HERALD SQUARE, NEW YORK CITY

Sunday Services

SERMONS AND SERVICES AT THE VARIOUS CHURCHES

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN
Court and Third Streets
John Wirt Dunning, Minister

All regular services will be held tomorrow. Bible school meets at nine o'clock. The school is rapidly getting back to its normal condition. Every teacher and scholar is urged to be present tomorrow. The men's class has just begun a study of the personal problems of men in relation to social life. New books are on hand, and will be given to those who did not get them last Sunday. The topic for discussion tomorrow will be: "Habits, Good and Bad." All men are invited. At 10:50 a. m. the pastor will preach on "The Puritanism of Jesus," a sermon appropriate to conditions as they are in the city today. Special music by the quartette and solo by Miss Berry. Christian Endeavor at six o'clock. Junior Endeavor at two in the afternoon. At seven the regular hour of evening worship, the choir will give the oratorio, "The Resurrection Hope." This will probably be the last of the winter monthly musicals, and is one of the best productions the choir has ever given. The soloists will be: Mrs. Lynn, Mrs. Storck, Miss Berry, Miss Routinger, Mr. Boyd, Mr. Schwartz, Mr. Kinsey and Mr. Klingman.

The full chorus will be present, under the direction of Prof. John L. Weaver. Miss Lollie Anderson will be the accompanist. The musical numbers in the production are:

1. Organ Prelude, Miss Anderson.

2. Chorus, "Sing With All the Sons of Glory."

2. Baritone solo and chorus, "All Around the Clouds are Breaking," Mr. Schwartz and chorus.

4. Soprano and tenor duet, "A Vision of the Angels." Miss Berry, Mr. Boyd.

5. Women's chorus and baritone solo, "Angels Roll the Rock Away," Mrs. Lynn, Mrs. Storck, Miss Berry, Mr. Kinsey.

6. Quartet, "The Day of Resurrection," Mr. Boyd, Miss Berry, Mrs. Storck, Mr. Schwartz.

7. Baritone solo, "Awake Glad Soul, Awake," Mr. Klingman.

8. Soprano solo, tenor solo and quartet, "But I Know," Miss Berry, Mr. Boyd and quartet.

9. Quartet and chorus, "Christ The Lord Is Risen."

10. Soprano solo, "The Shade and Gloom of Life Are Fled," Miss Berry.

11. Chorale, "My Flesh Shall Rest In Hope."

12. Tenor solo, "The Name of Jesus."

13. Final chorus, "I Am The Resurrection and the Life."

The oratorio will be given at the regular hour of evening worship, 7 o'clock.

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Charles S. Robertson, Pastor

Bible school at 9, W. W. Gates, Jr., superintendent. We believe that you have missed the school while unable to attend, and will you please make a sacrifice, if necessary, in order to be in your class Sunday? Our school should reach the 700 mark at once.

Worship by families at 10:30, with sermon by the pastor on the theme, "Life After Death."—The delayed Easter sermon. We have had splendid congregations the last two Sundays and hope that everyone will now be able to resume attendance.

Evening worship at 7, with sermon.

We have greatly appreciated the fact that evening worshippers have usually been as numerous as in the morning, and we believe this happy condition should continue. All sittings free. We expect to have the great organ in use again. The music of the day will be:

—Morning—

Organ Prelude, Romance "Salut D'Amour."—Elgar.

Anthem, "Hark, Hark My Soul"—Shelly—Miss Gertrude Elliott and Mr. Albert F. Marting, soloists.

Offertoire, Communion," in E minor—Batiste.

Offertoire Anthem, Trio, "Praise Ye" (from Attila)—Verdi—Miss Lydia Appel, Messrs. Anderson and Marting.

Organ Postlud, "Offertoire" in E flat—Nely.

—Evening—

Organ Prelude, "Evening"—Johnson.

Anthem, Quartette, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee"—Schnecker—Miss Ziegler, Mrs. Nodler, Messrs. Anderson and Marting.

Offertoire—Improvization.

Offertoire Anthem, Quartette, "Nearer My God to Thee"—Sudds—Misses Ziegler and Elliott, Messrs. Anderson and Marting.

Organ Postlude, Chorus in A major—Batiste.

Prayer meeting Wednesday, at 7:15 p. m.

The Pastor's Helpers will please meet at the church on Monday evening at seven o'clock, prompt.

The Mission study class will also meet at the church on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

A trustee's meeting will be held at the church on Thursday evening next, at 7:30. All members requested to be present.

It is hoped that by Sunday, May 11th, all traces of damage by the recent flood will be obliterated from our church building and that we shall put on our very best appearance again.

MANLY M. E. CHURCH
Corner Eleventh and Clay
Rev. L. I. Hart, Pastor

Sunday school at 9. Morning service at 10:50. A feature of the morning service will be the reception of members. All probationers are urged to be present.

Junior League at 1:30. Epworth League at 6. Evening service at 7. Sermon by the pastor. Subject, second greatest commandment, "Man's Duty to Man." Let all who can possibly do so attend services Sunday. The basement is dry and comfortable. No traces of the flood to interfere with the services at Manly.

BIGELOW M. E. CHURCH
Corner of Fifth and Washington
Rev. Alfred F. Hughes, Pastor

Sunday school at 9 o'clock, Dr. E. C. Anderson, superintendent. Morning worship at 10:30. Theme: "Sheep-clad Wolves," a discussion of the present situation in Portsmouth. BIBLE CLASSES

The term of Bible study with Mrs. Bowman as teacher will come to a close May 1st. Take advantage of these most excellent lessons which will be taught next week, as follows:

Sunday, 3 p. m. Second Presbyterian church, New Testament, Book of Ephesians.

Tuesday, 7:30 p. m. Second Presbyterian, Personal Work.

Wednesday, 2 p. m. Second Presbyterian church, Revelation, chapter 15-22.

Rosa E. Wendelken, Gen'l Sec'y.

ALL SAINTS' CHURCH
Corner of Fourth and Court Sts.
Rev'd. E. Ainger Powell, Rector

Fifth Sunday after Easter. Holy Communion at 7 a. m. Sunday school at 9 a. m. Teachers and scholars, please take notice that Sunday school is now being conducted and let us have a good attendance.

Morning prayer and sermon at 10:30 a. m. Evening prayer and address at 7 p. m. Morning subject, "Hearing and Doing," an exposition of the Epistle for the day.

Evening subject, "Knowledge and Power," a sermon on the Gospel for the day.

All services are being held in the Parish house on Fourth street, opposite the church. The large room upstairs, which will seat four hundred people, has been converted into quite a comfortable chapel, with altar and all accessories of worship.

The congregations last Sunday were very good, in view of the fact that not all people were aware of the services being held. This Sunday they should be still better. If you are a churchman, will you not please make a special effort to be present morning and evening? There will be a meeting of the Repairs Committee and the Vestry at the close of the evening service. Those desirous of being confirmed should give their names to the rector at once. Classes will be formed shortly.

Speaker's Daughter To Study Government

Miss Genevieve Clark, daughter of the speaker of the House of Representatives, will sail for Europe in a few days to study government there, she says. Mrs. George Harvey, wife of the New York publisher, will chaperon her. Miss Clark, though less than eighteen years of age at the time of the Baltimore convention, was one of her father's most ardent champions in his ambition to be the Democratic nominee for president. At one time she demanded of his managers that they send to Washington for him. She believed he would have stampeded the convention at the moment.

Sons Are Missing

Mrs. Lucy Fillmore, a widow, of No. 12 Bond street, appealed to the police Saturday to assist in locating her sons, John, aged 50, and Bob, aged 37. They have been missing ever since before the flood, when they started for Manchester, O.

Says Maitr..ss Was Stolen

James Bates, colored, of No. 1212 Fourteenth street, reported to the police that his sister-in-law, Flossie Bates, of Sixteenth and Kinner streets, had stolen a mattress from him. Officer Rome Arthur forced the woman to return the mattress.

LIVE TO BE 100

Millions Die of Kidney Disease; Tens of Thousand Have It Right Now and Never Suspect It.

The surest and wisest plan to always keep the kidneys healthy and free from poisonous matter that leads to Bright's disease, dropsy and other serious diseases is to take a few doses of Thompson's Barosma every three months.

It is a harmless vegetable remedy put up in liquid form, is quickly assimilated and gets to the sick kidneys at once. If your kidneys are weak, inflamed or clogged up, Thompson's Barosma will put them in splendid shape again. If they are not diseased, this greatest of all kidney remedies will tone up your system, anyway.

The Pure Drug Co. sells Thompson's Barosma for 50 cents and $1 a bottle on money back plan. It never fails to cure backache, sideache, sharp shooting pains and all kidney, liver or bladder disease. In connection with Barosma always take Thompson's Dandelion and Mandrake Pills (25 cents) when constipation is present. Thompson

Another First Class Scout

For nearly two hours Friday evening, Curtis Bellamy, a local Boy Scout underwent a grilling examination before the Boy Scouts' Court of Honor, for "First Class" honors. His examiners started in with tests in Scout History, and he told in a very interesting manner of the origin of the Boy Scout Movement in England, and of its great growth throughout the world, of its form of government, its teachings, etc. He was then made to review his work of the "Tenderfoot and Second Class" degree, and then "First Class" work was taken up in earnest. Campcraft was the first branch taken up, and the young man soon proved to the Court of Honor his familiarity with life in the woods. One of his quizzers sought to trap him at this juncture, when he was asked how he could find a compass direction without the aid of a compass. Bellamy called for a watch and explained how this could be done with the aid of a watch. "But suppose it was a cloudy day, and there was no sun to point your hour hand to?" He would then examine closely the trees of the forest the north side of the tree is always darker than the south side." But his quizzer was not quite through, and he continued. "Suppose it was night?" "I would look for the North Star, which can be easily found as the two last stars in the bowl of the dipper point directly toward it." "But suppose it was a cloudy night, and there were no stars visible?" His examiner felt confident now that he had him trapped, but not so, for the young man answered immediately: "Why I would feel around on the trees until I discovered moss, and then I could get my bearings, for moss never grows only on the north side of a tree."

He then had to tell some of the practical things of camp life, the matter of sanitation, drainage, the erection of tents, how to conduct a good camp fire, etc. and scores of other questions along this line did he answer like an old backwoodsman, and without a moment's hesitation. He was then examined on "Advanced First Aid"; having to demonstrate each of this work, which was very interesting. Then followed one of the most attractive features of this work, the semaphore signal work. His record being the spelling of a 50 letter message in 50 seconds. He was then required to draw a rough sketch map of the city from the "Point" to Gay street, locating various points of interest, designating street car lines, etc.

Other requirements of a "First Class" scout which young Bellamy met are as follows: Swim 50 years. Earn and deposit in a local bank $2.00. Take a 15 mile hike and write an account of same. Cook two camp dishes. Produce an article of carpentry made by himself, judge distance, size, number, height and weight within 25 per cent. Enlist a boy trained by himself in the requirements of a tenderfoot. The young scout trained by Bellamy was Clayton Parker.

Thomas Williams was examined at this meeting for a "Second Class" scout, and passed.

Mr. P. H. Wells, secretary of the Local Scout Council, was present, and assisted in the examinations.

Scouts from the Trinity, Kendall Avenue, First Baptist, First Presbyterian and Hill Top troops were present.

Best Known Cough Remedy

For forty-three years Dr. King's New Discovery has been known throughout the world as the most reliable cough remedy. Over three million bottles were used last year. Isn't this proof? It will get rid of your cough, or we will refund your money. J. J. Owens, of Allendale, S. C., writes the way hundreds of others have done: "After twenty years, I find that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and colds that I have ever used." For coughs or colds and all throat and lung troubles, it has no equal. 50c and $1.00 at The Fisher & Streich Pharmacy. adv

FOOD SOURING, INDIGESTION STOMACH SICK?--CASCARETS

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means your stomach is full of sour bile—your liver is torpid—your bowels constipated. It isn't your stomach's fault—it isn't indigestion—it's biliousness and constipation.

Try Cascarets; they immediately sweeten the stomach, remove the sour, indigested and fermented food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter from the bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret tonight straightens you out by morning.

Fine Work Is Done By Mission Class

(By Ruth Parrett)

Some of the best things, from a utilitarian point of view, are not always done to the music of a brass band, or to the blowing of a trumpet, attracting the attention of the entire populace.

Right here in Portsmouth there has been in existence for the past twenty years, perhaps, a little organization that has done much toward smoothing over domestic tribulations, helping to make homes happy and the wife and mother to economize, all because she was a pupil at the Jefferson Street Mission Sewing class in her own childhood days. Now that she is a mother herself, many of the one-time pupils are starting in their own children at the same place, in order that they may learn the principles of plain sewing, and be able to help in the household economics.

Domestic science has been made a part of the curriculum of the public schools in very recent years, and has not yet gained a firm foothold. Long before Domestic Science was thought of, Miss Mary Peebles originated the Jefferson Street Mission Sewing Class, and since it was first started many years ago, she has been its benefactor, its friend, and the fairy godmother who has furnished all the material necessary for the children to work with and the funds to keep the organization in running order.

Curly heads bent studiously over their work, small fingers laboriously turning the fold of a hem, and bright eyes dancing when the final stitch was taken in the button-hole that was being made for mama's inspection this evening—that was the attractive scene that greeted a visitor at the Mission Sewing Class this afternoon.

The class before the flood demoralized things so greatly, numbered forty-two children, and with four teachers and three young school girls who have finished the course, as assistants, the total attendance reached fifty. For several years Miss Virgie Neill has had charge of the work, and she is very capably assisted by Miss Margaret Hummell, Mrs. Will Cook and Mrs. Retta Rhane. Fern Wheeler, Helen Dupre and little Miss Davis, all of whom have been pupils of the class for several years and have now completed the work, also help in starting the children.

There is no age limit and the children can enter just as young as the mothers care to have them, or as the child herself cares to go.

Some little tots of six are among the most interested pupils in the whole company, and they make most strenuous endeavors to make their work "look like teacher's," though sometimes perspiring baby hands, and stubborn needles that will not go where they are intended to, cause a slight discrepancy in the results.

First of all, the children are furnished material for a little bag, in which to carry their work, and every child has to make her own bag. Some latitude is given as to color, etc., but all are made after the same pattern. Later the older children ornament these as they see fit.

In making the bag the little girls learn to back-stitch in order that the seams may be firm and secure, and they learn to hem when they finish off the top, preparatory to making a place for the draw-string.

Oftentimes they are dressed in frocks that need to be protected from anything that might soil them, so an apron is really a necessity. Each girl, from the six-year-old on up to the girl who is twice that age, or older, makes her own apron, trims it to suit her own ideas of beauty, and wears it with the honest pride in her own workmanship that belongs to everyone.

The buttonhole, that elusive proposition, is the hardest thing for the child to learn. No matter how small it is when she starts to work it, by the time the tiny fingers have rounded the little circle, it has grown out of all proportion and is any shape but that which it had originally. Thread that was white becomes a dull gray brown in the buttonholing process, and stitches seemingly taken along the same line turn out of the way and side-track either above or below where they ought to be.

But the little lassies know no such word as fail, and if they do get discouraged they call for teacher, who is all-wise, and who can always bring order and good looks out of chaos and tribulation.

There are children in this sewing class whose mothers attended in the early years of its existence and who appreciated the work of the class to such an extent that they are starting their children as soon as they are old enough.

The only puzzle is that more mothers, many of whom do not have time to teach their own children, do not take advantage of it.

Everything about the school is free—material, thread, needles—everything is furnished by Miss Peebles, and the teachers who go there from Saturday to Saturday, are volunteer workers who love the children, and do the work gladly and joyfully because they are anxious to assist in something worth while.

They need more teachers. The children should have a teacher for every half dozen of them, to make the work run smoothly and rapidly. As it is now, those working cannot handle the classes and do the little girls full justice in the hours from two to three-thirty every Saturday afternoon.

Any girl or young woman who would like to help will be gladly welcomed, and it is a certainty that there are many of them in Portsmouth who would be willing to give that length of time one afternoon each week toward teaching these little folks.

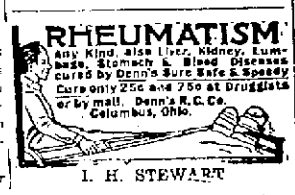

The attendance at the sewing class is made up largely of children from the Hill-top, the residents there seemingly being more appreciative of the work than those of the downtown district.

Happy, interested, learning to use their tiny fingers for something worth while, that bunch of merry little girls are absorbing knowledge that will sometime be of benefit in the future homes of Portsmouth. When they grow up they will lessen the trade in slip-shod, cheap, ready-made garments, for their families will wear clothes that are made of good material, put together in a way that will last, and one rock on which the domestic boat called "felicity" might wreck, is put forever out of the way.

WOMAN SUFFERED TEN YEARS

From Nervousness Caused by Female Ills—Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Auburn, N. Y.—"I suffered from nervousness for ten years, and had such organic pains that sometimes I would lie in bed four days at a time, could not eat or sleep and did not want anyone to talk to me or bother me at all. Sometimes I would suffer for seven hours at a time. Different doctors did the best they could for me until four months ago I began giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and now I am in good health."—Mrs. WILLIAM H. GILL, 15 Pleasant Street, Auburn, New York.

"Doctor's Daughter Took It."

St. Cloud, Minn.—"I was so run down by overwork and worry that I could not stand it to have my children talk aloud or walk heavy on the floor. One of my friends said, 'Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for I know a doctor's daughter here in town who takes it and she would not take it if it were not good.'

"I sent for the Compound at once and kept on taking it until I was all right."—Mrs BERTHA M. QUICKSTADT, 727 5th Avenue, S., St. Cloud, Minn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be relied upon as the most efficient remedy for female ills. Why don't you try it?

Aviator Girls Are Coming To the Sun

Most dainty and tuneful are the "Aviator Girls" who will play a return engagement at the New Sun theatre, beginning next Monday. The Aviator Girls absolutely present one of the best musical comedies ever seen in Portsmouth. The comedy for the opening Monday will be "Rosenbaum's $10,000 Marriage," with Mark Lea as Rosenbaum. Catchy songs, good dancing and the dances of all nations will be one of the features, while the comedy is good and into some of the scenes musical life will be injected. The Aviator Girls made quite a hit here on their previous visit, and many were turned away at every performance, so great was the demand for admission. Owing to the lengthy program, pictures will be omitted during this engagement.

Damage At Augusta

W. R. Hazelton of Augusta, Ky., was in Portsmouth on business Saturday. He says that town was almost wiped off the map by the flood. Exactly 905 people were driven from their homes. 314 dwellings and business houses were flooded, 77 of which were wrecked or washed off their foundations. The loss in Augusta is placed at $60,000. Mayor John O'Neil has appealed to citizens of Cincinnati for financial assistance.

WOOTEN TAKEN TO PEN, BEGINS LIFE SENTENCE

The gates of the Ohio state penitentiary closed on Oscar Clarence (Jack) Wooten Saturday and the concluding lines of a sensational tragedy staged in Scioto county, are written

Wooten entered the penitentiary to serve a life sentence for the slaying of his wife, Myrtle Wooten, on the night of February 15th.

Against the prisoner the state still holds the charge of a crime which snuffed out the life of Lot McChamber, a structural iron worker Wooten's wife's paramour caught in the same room with Mrs. Wooten on the night of the double killing.

In custody of Sheriff Eckhart, Wooten bid farewell to the county jail early Saturday morning and started on his trip to Columbus to pay the penalty for the sacrifice of his wife's life. Up to the last Wooten maintained that the killing was accidental but the laws of the state are stern and inflexible and a jury has decreed that he was guilty of second degree murder.

Wooten's only hope of the future lies in the conditional clause carried by the verdict,—hope of pardon of a commutation of sentence.

Within two months after the crime Scioto county courts have captured the man who was responsible for the loss of two lives, have accorded him a trail convicted him and started him the road to payment of the penalty which the statutes of the state exact for violation of its social standard.

Rates For Teachers

Washington, April 26.—A new plan of governmental co-operation with teachers of the country was started today by the Geological Survey. It has been determined to give special rates to schools on topographic maps of the country. For $3 the Survey hereafter will sell any teacher 50 different topographic maps, making the selection of the territory in which the school is located and adjacent counties. The price quoted barely covers the cost of printing and paper. Commercial maps for the same sections often cost $2 and $3 apiece.

HUSBAND MADE BIGAMY CHARGE

Charges of bigamy will be introduced in the Kinker divorce hearing in common pleas court Saturday morning, when Carl Fred Kinker, the plaintiff, introduced a marriage certificate showing that his wife was already married at the time she accepted him.

Kinker secured his divorce on the grounds of adultery and gross neglect of duty.

In his petition for divorce, filed by Attorney Theo. K. Funk, Kinker, a local stove molder, claims he married the defendant at South Webster October 18, 1901. A marriage license issued to Lizzie M. Milhorn (his wife) and W. P. Tuslow, at Bristol, Va., was dated July 5, 1899. Kinker claims that her first husband was living at the time he was married to the woman. Mrs. Kinker is claimed to be in a home for abandoned women at Norwalk, Huron county, Ohio.

Art Exhibit Was A Decided Success

The pupils of the Wheelersburg High school are very much pleased over the outcome of their art exhibit, as they have realized enough to purchase a splendid picture for their room.

The exhibit included more than two hundred pictures and today is the closing day for the exhibition. This was given at Haequard hall and was in charge of the teachers and pupils of the high school. Miss Elizabeth Eaton, principal, was indefatigable in her efforts to make the affair a success and the teachers and pupils very capably aided her.

Tonight the young people give an entertainment as the closing feature of the exhibit. Several little playlets, recitations and songs will constitute the program.

WAR BEGAN 15 YEARS AGO

Washington, April 26—Veteran legislators recalled today that fifteen years ago the 25th of April was the formal opening of the Spanish-American war, Spain having formally declared war against the United States on the 24th. This country was notified April 25, 1898.

Claim There Are No Moral Derelicts

Chicago, April 26.—Chicago's new morals court, the first of its kind in the world, is operating upon the theory that there is no derelict of society, no matter how depraved, no matter how long or how hardened in vice, but that still harbors some spark of goodness, some dormant, smouldering character material that can be fanned into a flame of good citizenship and moral betterment. The morals court is in its third week today. In that short time, according to those who were most instrumental in bringing it into being, it has demonstarted its place by the great good already accomplished through it.

The theory on which this new court is being conducted is not being preached from a pulpit as an abstract proposition. It is being put to actual practice every day, with sociological experts, who crowd the benches of the court room, looking on and taking notes. They believe it will mark a new era in court methods of dealing with habitues of the underworld. They believe it an essential part of any city which is striving to clean out the morally leprous spots in the community. It is, they contend, an important step in the solution of that just now widely and frankly discussed social evil problem.

Model Boys

Washington, April 26—Fifty "100 per cent boys" were in the National Capital today. They came from San Francisco and were joined here by a Washington lad who is 100 per cent good. The boys are picked for their ability as musicians, athletes and students and for their moral character. They are in charge of Major Sidney S. Peixoto, of the Columbia Park Boys' Club, of San Francisco, who makes a specialty of taking the lads around the world. They earn their own way, largely by entertainments. None of the boys is over 15 years.

Certificates Given To The Teachers

Certificates to teach in the public schools of the city were granted to a large number of applicants yesterday. The examination was held some days ago and the examiners met yesterday afternoon in the office of Superintendent Appel to award the coveted papers to the successful applicants. Those allowed include:

High school, two years—Robert L. Meeks, elementary; eight years, Blanch Noel; five years, J. Agnes Coburn, E. M. Gentry; three years, Grace Fry, Bertha Wheeler, Pearle Anderson, Merle Little; two years, Elizabeth Norris, Madge Coburn Alice Combs, Bertha Wheeler; one year, Margaret Klingman, Lulu Turner, Blanche Eckhart, Nannie Wood, Gladys Wittenburg and Leanora McNamara. Kindergarten—one year, Gertrude Elliott.

INJURED WHILE IN RESTAURANT, SUES

An aftermath of the disturbance in the Manhattan restaurant on the afternoon of March 12, when Mrs. Margaret Scott was struck in the head with a salt shaker, takes the form of a damage suit in common pleas court, in which Mrs. Scott is suing Thomas and George Maheras and Alex Chiculas, owners of the restaurant, for $1,000 damages.

Her petition, filed by Attorneys Milner, Miller and Searl, alleges that the defendants incited a brawl, in the course of which she was struck with the salt shaker thrown by Jack Alden, an actor. An ugly wound on the forehead, which caused her to be indisposed for three weeks and has left its permanent scar, is alleged to have been the result. For this, Mrs. Scott asks the damages in the above-named sum.

STOLEN AUTO IS SENT TO OWNER

The auto roadster of C. H. McGrath, of Columbus, which was wrecked and abandoned here by Kenneth Smith and George Dixon, was returned to the owner by John E. Williams, Saturday. The boys, who took the car from Columbus and after their accident on the Chillicothe pike offered to sell it to Mr. Williams' colored hostler for $25, have not yet been located. It is now believed it was the same pair who tried to make way with T. G. Jewett's car Tuesday night, or early Wednesday morning. The car was found abandoned at T. C. Anderson's shale bank, leaking pumps making further going impossible. Mr. Williams had advanced the boys railroad fare to Columbus, but no one saw them board a train here.

Thieves Got What The Flood Had Left

What the flood did not carry away from the home of George Schneider on East Eighth street, thieves did and Mr. Schneider is righteously indignant. He says that almost everything he had left in the way of household possessions have disappeared and he has notified the police.

"They even stole my trap drum that cost me $45," wailed Mr. Schneider. He is working on a clue and an arrest is not unlikely in a few hours. Mr. Schneider says the thieves entered his home in broad daylight and carried everything that wasn't nailed down.

EVERYONE PRAISES WORK IN PEERLESS

How Portsmouth recovered from the flood is the talk not only in the city, but all over the state. The Rev. A. F. Hughes, pastor of Bigelow church, was on a train yesterday, when he chanced to hear a couple of traveling men discussing the recent floods.

"Of all the towns that I have been in since the flood, Portsmouth has certainly recovered the most quickly and completely," said one of the men. "I was really astonished to see how the city had cleaned up and gone ahead. In some of the other cities that I visited, and which really did not suffer as much as Portsmouth, the merchants were more discouraged, and were standing around and bewailing their troubles."

Portsmouth may think that such things will not be of any material benefit to her, but such impression scattered abroad will mean credit for our merchants should they ever need it, for the wholesalers know that such hustlers are sure to make good. Such impressions may locate new industries here, may bring new capital and do the city good in a thousand and one ways.

MAY ERECT NEW SCHOOL BUILDING

Salaries for teachers, janitors, etc. of the Clay township schools were allowed this afternoon at the regular meeting of the board of education of the township. The several amounts total $400.

It is likely that plans will be made today for the erection of a new two room building on the Rosemount road.

Completes Two Deals

P. W. Kilcoyne has consummated two real estate deals up on the Hill Top this week. The five room cottage of John Sherer on Summit street was sold to Edward Petry, while the four room cottage on McConnell avenue, owned by Mrs. George H. Fee was purchased by Isaas W. Harrison.

Are To Move.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strickett are preparing to move the latter part of next week from Monroe street to their home on the Chillicothe pike.

What Ohio Teachers Will Read In 1914

Columbus, O., April 26.—Public school teachers of Ohio will read during the year 1913 to 1914 the following books:

Pedagogy, Strayer's "The Teaching Process," or Milner's "The Teacher;" literature, Van Dyke's "Essays in Application;" history, Parkman's "The Conspiracy," or Carney's "Country Life."

These books were selected at the meeting of the board of control of the Ohio Teachers' Reading Circle last night at the Hartman hotel. Under the subdivisions of pedagogy and history, each teacher can choose one of two books. The reading circle books for high schools and elementary schools will be selected next fall.

Reorganization of the board was effected last night by electing the following officers: F. E. Reynolds, Wapakaneta, president; N. E. Hutchinson, Kenton, treasurer; Laura B. Kean, Wooster, recording secretary; F. P. Timmons, Milford, corresponding secretary; W. E. Kershner, Columbus, again will be business manager. Other members of the board are W. L. Fulton, Bryan; F. S. Coultrap, Athens; Bertha Ruess, Mansfield; L. E. York, Massillon, and F. W. Miller, Columbus.

The next meeting of the board will be June 21 at Cedar Point in connection with the sessions of the Ohio Teachers' association.

Goodbye Oysters

Washington, April 26—From now until September that luscious bivalve, the oyster, will rest in peace in the muddy bottom of Chesapeake Bay. Tonging for oysters is tabooed after today. The season is officially closed. Down the Potomac the big fleet of oyster boats is closed up, except for those which will make a living for their owners during the closed season as pleasure boats at the various summer resorts along the river. Experts explained today that it takes four years for an oyster to "get its growth" and become fit for market. The few oysters which will be eaten during the summer will come from the private beds which are fenced with all the care of a game preserve.

President Heurta Controls Less Than One-Half Of Mexican Territory

LINE UP OF OPPOSING FORCES IN MEXICO

	Sq. Miles.	Population
Huerta	380,710	10,880,000
Carranza	330,300	2,340,000
Bandits	54,490	1,860,000
Totals	765,500	15,080,000

Huerta's Enemies Hold Large Part of Country

The entire organized opposition to Huerta holds control of 384,790 square miles, or slightly more than half the area of the nation. The population of these revolving sections is 4,200,000 or a little less than one-third of Mexico's total.

Venustiano Carranza was governor of Coahuila under Madero. He has had himself proclaimed provisional president in opposition to Huerta. He is establishing a "junta" at Washington, D. C., and is said to represent the Madero interests. He is the acknowledged leader of the "Constitutionalist" movement.

The Maytorena revolt in Sonora and Sinaloa is aided by the Yaqui Indians. Governor Maytorena holds Hermosillo, the capital of Sonora, which he has never surrendered to Huerta, and has the resources of the state at his back. He is said to acknowledge Carranza's leadership.

The National line of railway north of Monterey has been torn up by Carranza; it is also cut south of Monterey, and shuts off all northern egress. The International line from Monclova to Eagle Pass, is in Carranza control. The Central, for most of the way from Torreon to Chihuahua City also fell into his hands when he captured Jimenez, the Huerta army headquarters for the north. North of Chihuahua City to Ciudad Juarez, opposite El Paso, is also in control of Carranza forces.

The Southern Pacific Railway of Mexico runs from the Arizona border south through Sonora, Sinaloa and Tepic for a thousand miles. It is nearly all in the hands of Maytorena forces.

The Southern Mexico line from the city of Puebla to the city of Oaxaca, 228 miles, has been put out of business by Zapata, as has also the Interoceanic Railway from Mexico City to Vera Cruz, 201 miles.

All of these railways, except the Southern Pacific of Mexico, are parts of the National Railways of Mexico system.

Telegraph wires are down all over northern Mexico. It is still possible to reach Mexico City by cable to Vera Cruz.

In the sections where Huerta's power is recognized the spirit of revolt is gaining headway and bands of brigands are in almost unrestrained operation.

GIVING AWAY MONEY

Pittsburg, April 26—The formal announcement of another $1,000,000 gift by Andrew Carnegie to the Carnegie Technical Institute was made at Founders' Day exercises. Former Governor Herbert S. Hadley, of Missouri, was the principle speaker of the day. Andrew Carnegie was unable to attend. President William N. Frew, of the board of trustees, was scheduled to announce the prize winners of the international art exhibit, for which some 800 accepted and judged by a board of eleven artists of international fame. The report of the secretary, music by the Glee Club completed the program. The Carnegie gift of today is the twelfth million he has presented to the Technical Institute, presented to the Technical Institute. $8,000,000.

BIG DAMAGE IN PIKE

A PLAIN BRICK HOUSE

Designed By Chas. S. Sedgwick, Architect.

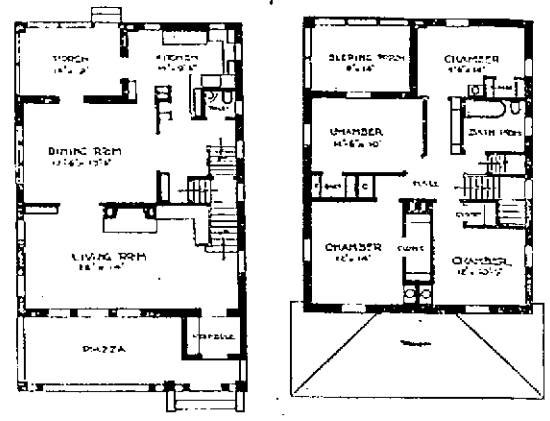

If you want to build a good house, permanent, warm and substantial, brick is still the best method of construction. Where loans of money are required on residence property, they can always be obtained better on a substantial brick house, the difference in cost is not great and it may also be added that the benefit of enhanced value of the property is not generally appreciated.

In the case of a house the size of the one shown in our illustration, which is 30 ft. in width by 40 ft. in depth, the difference between a frame exterior and brick walls as hereafter described would not exceed $750. In this case the walls are 12 in. thick, built with hollow brick for the inside course and a variegated oriental brick for the exterior face with a common brick for the middle or filler course, the brick are laid in cement and the outside joints left open and deeply sunk. The sill courses, the cap to the piazza wall, also the steps, are built of hard vitrified brick, set on edge in cement. The foundation wall is 12 in. thick, built of concrete and carried to the grade line, the brick starting from this point, using a dark vitrified sewer brick up to the first sill course and from this point to the top of the wall oriental brick. It is estimated to build this house, exclusive of heating and plumbing for $4300. The roof is low pitched and with wide projected eaves brought down close over the second story windows.

This house is a plain rectangular house suited to the ordinary city lot with the narrow end to the street and a wide 10 ft. piazza across the front, constructed with heavy brick piers, carried to the cornice and intermediate columns of wood.

The vestibule entrance at the right opens into a large living room occupying the full front with wide fireplace in the center and the staircase leading up to the second story from the right side. The dining room opens from the rear of the living room, the kitchen, pantry and culinary department has had special study and is arranged on the "dutch kitchen" order with wall cupboards, dumb waiter, clothes chute, etc. In the rear left hand angle is an open screened piazza under the main roof and above it a sleeping porch, connecting with the chambers. The second story has four good chambers and large bath room, ample closets and stairs to attic (which is left unfinished for storage purposes.) The house is finished in hardwood with hardwood floors and Mission stain.

Brumby Got $200,000 Within 24 Months

Bob Brumby made a good thing out of his forgeries, according to a clipping from the Atlanta Constitution. As was told in yesterday's Times, he was arrested in San Francisco and held for the Atlanta police. The paper says:

"A modest income of $200,000 in the last two years was netted Benjamin W. Brumby, of Marietta, by the handicraft of his clever forgeries, if the substance of his confession telegraphed today from San Francisco, where he is under arrest to Atlanta, is true.

"Local Pinkertons have been on the trail of the 'king of the forgers' since last December, when he broke jail in Montgomery, and they would like to get him back here, where he is wanted for three forgeries, two on one bank, but the San Francisco authorities wired Chief Beavers today they have two strong cases against him there.

"He will be prosecuted there, and when the Western authorities are through with him he will be held for the Atlanta police.

"Far from being reticent when he was arrested in the West, Brumby was talkative, even boastful. He related at length and with a showing of considerable pride the forgeries he had made and the money he had collected. He declared that he had forged checks aggregating more than $200,000 in the last two years and that he never had failed to cash them.

Atlanta Pinkertons are inclined to believe that Brumby has overestimated the amount of his forgeries. They say their records show he has forged this amount since he started operating in 1909, but not in the last two years.

Traced by Trail of Checks

After sawing his way from the Montgomery jail, where he was held for the Atlanta authorities for his $1,699 forgeries here, he started westward and the detectives were able to trace him by his trail of worthless checks. He made four banks in Denver his victims, getting an aggregate of $2,400 from them.

He was next heard from in Oklahoma City, where one bank was gathered into his net to the extent of $1,000.

"At Salt Lake City he swindled two banks for a total of $1,300, and in San Francisco he victimized two before he was caught. According to dispatches, he is wanted in a dozen other cities about the country."

Good Roads Are Wanted

Birmingham, Ala., April 26—Every state in the union will be asked to be represented at a gathering to discuss good roads. This was one of the important matters decided upon when the National Good Roads Federation met here. Several thousand advocates of good roads movements from all over the country attended. The question of raising money for a permanent system of highways also was discussed.

TO BE SENT TO HOSPITAL

The county authorities have decided to send Barber Mike Dressler to the tubercular ward of St. Anthony's hospital at Columbus instead of to the State hospital at Mt. Vernon. He will be taken to Columbus by Anderson Henderson, Monday.

Railroad Firemen Are Given Increase

New York, April 26—Eastern railroad firemen are granted an increase of pay estimated at from 10 to 12 per cent. by the award of the Erdman act arbitration board.

Other claims of the firemen are allowed, on the demand for two firemen on large locomotives is denied, except in case of necessity.

Another request for which the firemen fought namely, the standardization of wages based on the weight of locomotives on drivers, was granted, although the award provides that all wages that were higher or conditions that were better than fixed in the award shall not be interfered with.

This provision affects a number of railroads. The firemen also were relieved of the duty of cleaning engines.

The award is considered in the nature of a compromise as the firemen asked an increase estimated in the neighborhood of 15 per cent.

The total amount of wages paid the firemen, who number about 50,000, is $90,000,000, so that the increase of from 10 to 12 per cent will cost the railroads from $9,000,000 to $10,800,000 annually.

Is Effective May 3

The award is effective May 3, this date having been fixed in accordance with the provisions of the Erdman act, under which the board was appointed.

The two-fireman question is disposed of by providing for an adjustment commission to decide whether an extra fireman is necessary. This commission is empowered to act where a settlement cannot be made between the firemen's committee and officials of the railroad.

It is provided that overtime in all classes of service, except passenger, shall be paid for pro rata on the minute basis. When miles exceed hours, miles will be allowed, and when hours exceed miles, hours will be allowed.

Firemen tied up between terminals on account of the 16 hours of service law will be paid continuous time from initial point to tie-up point.

Increases in the wages demanded in behalf of the hostlers and helpers on electric locomotives also are granted. The increases are not so large as demanded.

They were given in the award in firemen's ranging from $2.45 on locomotives less than 80,000 pounds to $3.00 on all engines over 250,000 pounds and $4 on Mallet engines, regardless of weight.

On freight service the awards were somewhat higher, engines of more than 200,000 pounds on drivers getting an increase to $4 a day.

Ten hours or less, or 100 miles or less, shall constitute a day's work in all classes of service.

FURNISHING TODAY'S HOUSE

BY LOUISE GOODLOE FALCONER

As this is the time of year that housekeepers take down all heavy draperies and portieres, slip cover all furniture, and dress the entire house in a cool summer outfit, we will start with that idea, so saving ourselves all this trouble, and thus find ourselves all ready for the warm days so soon to come, and which usually find us all unprepared.

Tinting the walls a very deep ivory, and using a soft-toned brown velvet Wilton for rugs, give us a good foundation for both summer coolness and strength of color for winter's more complete furnishing. One set of curtains only will be needed for the present, and these can be of the same Ivory as the wall in color, and one of the large meshed nets in material. Be careful to get the large mesh, for summer dust soon chokes a small mesh and causes it to hold the dirt that goes entirely through the larger one. Don't attempt to drape, let the curtains fall straight and finish with either a deep hem, or a simple lace. For the slip covers, use an old English glazed chintz. It keeps its freshness for an unbelievable length of time, and the glaze gives an additional air of coolness. These chintzes come in a variety of colors, and designs, but one which seems especially suited for summer use has an Ivory background with broad stripes of reseda green. If you should use this, you need never fear the tub, for its last state will be equal to its first. Under your windows have wicker boxes, stained the brown of your rug, and fill them with ferns which tone in color from gray green through to deeper bronze. Use oak furniture stained a deep brown and waxed to show the full grain. Keep your tables as bare as is conducive to convenience, for bareness suggests coolness and that is your summer aim.

The dining room should be treated as the living room, except here, of course, there is no need of chintz. The chairs had best be rush bottomed and the furniture the same waxed oak. On the center table try to keep a vase of some old-fashioned flower, for its fragrance will sweeten the whole house. The screened porch will in reality be the summer dining room, and should be fitted up in wicker. A round table takes up less room, and serves not only for meals, but books, work bags and magazines between times. A few wicker chairs, and a duplicate of the wicker fern filled baskets used in the living room, will make a charming lounging room, and probably the most used one in the house.

The upstairs walls we will either tint or paper in a French gray, and use a darker gray for rugs in all the rooms alike. If you are buying new furniture, the gray oak, waxed a dull soft finish is most attractive. Use a cream marquisette for curtains, finishing them simply with a hemstitched hem of about two and a half inches. Have any pictures you use here of black and white, or simple etchings, and frame in the dull gray of your room. An all gray room is the quintessence of coolness and rest. In a second bedroom an all white enamel set could be used. These come also with garlands of Dresden colored flowers, which can serve as a keynote of decoration to the room. If so, the marquisette curtain which comes with these same Dresden borders would be very effective. This same idea can be carried out in the two other rooms always remembering that colors suggest and seem to impart heat and if used in summer furnishings should be in pastel shades or in dull coloring.

WOMAN'S ARM BROKEN

In alighting from a hilltop car on Seventh street, near Oakland avenue, late Friday night, Mrs. Cecil Kirkendall, sustained a hard fall and received a broken arm near the shoulder. She was removed to the city hospital for treatment.

Conductor Scott and Motorman Haynes who operated the car claim that Mrs Kirkendall attempted to alight before it stopped for the corner.

The Portsmouth Veneer and Panel Company are getting their plant in shape for operation and it will be in running order in two or three weeks.
